My Dear Meander Line.

Meander Line, my dear Meander Line,
Can it be you are forever lost.
After the trouble you have give me
And the money that you cost?

Meander Line, oh, Meander Line,
It breaks my aching heart:
After so many happy years together,
At last, we are doomed to part.

And to think you would join the settlers
And share their lonely life—
Which is not but want and misery's
Never ending strife

Meander Line, my dear Meander Line,
I will bid you a last adieu—
With my prayers and hopes stayed
On Heaven again returning you.
