

NO HARD TIMES IN HARNEY.

Senator Gowan L. eates the long-Missing Wave of Prosperity.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.

It has been common belief that Harney county would not produce fruits. We have now in numerous localities young bearing orchards, and they give promise of yielding a good crop this year. The principal fruits are apples and plums, which in quality are unexcelled. There is one serious drawback to farming in Harney county. There is a lack of water supply for irrigating purposes, and some method must be adopted before a large waste of sage brush land can be reclaimed. With a reasonable amount of money, ample storage of water in the mountains could be secured for use in the dry season. It has been demonstrated, too, that artesian water can be had at no great expense, but to the ordinary settler life is to short and money so scarce to invest in experiments. National or state aid is invoked for this purpose, and the hope is that the time will soon come when artesian wells will furnish an adequate supply of water for all needed purposes.

The town of Burns is rapidly branching out in business. Several new firms have established themselves there this spring in general merchandising and other lines, and travelers say of Burns that it is the only railroad town in the state 160 miles away from any line. With the stock sales and returns from the wool clip, money is circulating freely; wages are fair, but there are plenty there to earn them. During the hay harvest there will be a demand for extra labor, but it will be a good place for tramps to stay away from. Burns is a paradise for drummers now and there is a great strife among them on arriving to see who will catch the early worm.

The democratic party believes in home rule in every sense of the expression, before, during and after a campaign.

Congressman Beach, of that State cannot be accused of being over confident of republican success in Ohio this year. In fact, he talks like a man who wished to prepare his party for defeat.

Congressman Bailey, of Texas, declares that he has no presidential aspirations and that he favors the nomination of Bryan by the democrats.
