Miss Stella Hennick, daughter of the Milton wife beater, publishes a letter in the East Oregonian defending her father. We presume she has been raised to think that wife beating is perfectly right and the proper thing for the husband to do when he desires recreation in that way.

The coal miners and mine owners are still at war and from present indications are far from a peaceful solution of the strike. Two of the strikers were shot and a third one cut with a razor at Pittsburg on the 22nd, neither of them were dangerously wounded. The fight was between strikers and non-strikers.

Frank Wilson came near being drowned last Sunday attempting to swim a horse across Silver river near the saw mill. The horse reared up and fell back catching Frank under him. Had it not been for some one, we did not learn whom was on the river bank near him and came to his assistance the result would have been the death of the young man.

Jack Ragon, an estimable young man of our town, met with an accident on Monday evening, in the Gymnasium, which may result seriously. He was swinging on a bar with the intention of accomplishing some feat of gymnastic performance when his hands slipped and he fell a distance of 10 or 12 feet striking the floor with great force on the back of the head and neck, causing partial paralysis of the whole body. Jack is one of our best boys, and in every sense of the word a true man, industrious, intelligent, energetic and moral. We are sorry indeed that such an accident should befall so worthy a young man just starting on a career of usefulness and honorable attainment. The patient is under the care of Dr. Marsden who is doing everything possible for him and we sincerely hope we can in our next issue, report Jack on the way of recovery.

We see in an exchange that a Massachusetts Postmistress, who had just become a bride, opened the letters of the patrons of the office to find out just what her acquaintances thought of herself and "tother" half.

Why Every Man Should Insure

NEW YORK LIFE.

BECAUSE It is one of the Strongest Companies in the World. BECAUSE

It has over $187,176,406 in assets and a record of 52 years during all of which time it has steadily increased in strength and prosperity. BECAUSE you can borrow money from the Company at 5 per cent per annum, after your Policy has been three years in force.

BECAUSE

You do not have to die to win. If you live 10, 15 or 20 years you can settle your policy in any way that best suits your circumstances at the time—for cash paid-up insurance, annuity, or other options.
