Teamsters from Harney valley and the productive Malheur country have hauled several tons of good wheat to the mills in this valley and returned loaded with flour and fruit—a fair exchange of products which is beneficial to all parties concerned.—Canyon News.

An accident occurred near White Horse last Saturday which caused the death of Elva Bunyard. The young man was driving an eight-mule team down a hill when one of the trace chains came unhitched. Mr. Bunyard stopped to hitch it and the mule kicked him under the wagon and that instant the team started. The wagon, which was heavily loaded, ran over him, passing directly across his abdomen. John Logan came to Burns for medical assistance arriving here Sunday and Dr. Marsden left at once for the scene of the accident, but the unfortunate young man died Monday before the doctor arrived. The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bunyard of Harney, who have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad bereavement. We are informed by Wm. Christian that the remains will be interred in the Harney cemetery.
