B. F. HAYNES PUBLISHING COMPANY, Nashville, Tenn.

It is said this movement is in reality a reorganization of the Oregon Central & Eastern railway for the purpose of extending it eastward. A. B. Hammond, president of the Oregon Central & Eastern is at the head of the new company and is the chief stock bolder.

His attorneys made a desperate effort to secure further delay and pave the way for another appeal to the supreme court, but Judge Bahrs was inexorable and overruled each and every objection made to the proceedings.

San Francisco, Dec., 14-The Examiner says:

The police and the people of Emanuel Baptist Church believe that the life of the Rev. J. George Gibson, Durrant's former pastor, is in danger. The police have warned the reverned gentleman to protect himself against the possibility of harm. The warning has been heedbers of his congregation has volun-
