Thos Stephens was a passenger on the O-B. stage Sunday morning. Tom visited several places while away.

This office acknowledges a pleasant call from Jos Williams last Saturday.
Mrs. Martha Adams and son, Frank, are in Burns from the P-ranch and will remain this winter. Master Frank will attend school.

We understand that L. Woldenberg, Jr., of Harney, has purchased a block in Brown's addition and will move his residence from Harney into a new one.
The democratic state central committee will meet in Portland on Jackson's day, January 3, 1898. It is the intention of the committee to fix a date for the state convention.

We have a large assortment of Men and Boys Suits on hand for Holiday trade. Call and look at our stock before purchasing. We can fit you up in any style desired at reasonable prices.—Mason & London.
J. C. Garrett, who has been stopping on the C. A. Sweek ranch with his wife and daughter, Mrs. P. M. Cheever, left for Silver Creek last Friday.

A Harney young lady sent 50 cents to an eastern expert to learn how to keep her hands in proper condition and was told to soak them three times a day in dish-water.—Canyon News.
Dr. Marsden was called to see Henry, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dodson, the first of the week. The little fellow was hurt by being knocked down with a hand sled while coasting. He has entirely recovered.

The little daughter of Joseph Street, who has been in Burns for several days under the care of Dr. Marsden, returned home yesterday. The doctor removed a tumor from her hand. The little girl was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Worthington while here.
Rev. J. C. Templeton and family entertained a large company of young people at the parsonage last Thursday evening. Various games were indulged in until quite a late hour, when the guests departed, expressing themselves as having a very enjoyable evening and will look forward with pleasure to another visit.

The McKinley-Hobart republic club of this place met at the court house last Saturday evening and elected the following delegates to attend the state league at Portland February 1, 1898: W. S. Waters, W. Y. King, Geo. F. J. J. Donegan, J. M. Peebles and J. A. Sparrow.

According to a report in the Sumpter News a man that enters the prize fighting ring in Granite, has to be a hard "puncher," as a man is not considered knocked out if he gets up in five minutes.
Sumpter News: Sumpter has a new brass band organized last Monday evening with a full corps of old band men and we may get ready to enjoy some first class entertainment in that line. We hope they will soon equal if not eclipse the famous Burns band, which is the largest and finest in Eastern Oregon at present.

Long Creek Eagle: The enterprising town of Burns was visited last week by C. P. Johnson, of John Day, for the purpose of interesting the business-men in the building of a telephone line from Canyon City to Burns. When once built the Burns people will be like our own citizens in that they will wonder how they ever got along before without a telephone.

"Rebecca's Triumph" was rendered to a well filled house last Wednesday evening. While a part of the audience would have preferred something more in the comedy line, it was well received, the ladies acquitting themselves with credit, each having a good conception of the part assigned them. Such entertainments should be encouraged and the young people of Burns ought to give us several good dramas, farces, etc. The receipts amounted to $65.50.
