H. M. Horton returned last Monday from a trip to the Narrows and Silver Creek.

Robt. Copeland, a former resident of Harney, but now of Nevada, paid Burns a visit this week.

Boyle, the photographer, wishes to inform the public that he will not take down his tent on account of a risk of business.

The County Clerk issued a marriage license this morning to Mr. Clarence Lucky and Miss Ella Whiting.

Born—To Mrs. Ida Waters, last Saturday, a baby boy. Dr. Marsden, the attending physician, reports the mother and child doing well.

Commissioners Court is not bothered any about finding candidates for stock inspector this year. They say there are a few that haven't applied as yet.

The public school of Burns reopened last Monday after a two weeks vacation. Miss Eva Swain has taken charge of the primary department.

We have a large assortment of Men and Boys Suits on hand for Holiday trade. Call and look at our stock before purchasing. We can fit you up in any style desired at reasonable prices.—Mason & London.

C. T. Mills, President of the Seven Devils Transportation Company, has just closed a contract with a Portland firm for a steam boat to ply between the Huntington bridge and the Seven Devil mines.

The first term of 3 months of Prof. Dillard's private school will close next Friday. This school has been a very satisfactory one to the patrons and pupils. There are about 25 enrolled.

The "flagraising" at the Poison Creek school house last Friday afternoon was attended by several of our citizens, who report the exercises very good, the pupils acquitting themselves with great credit to themselves and teacher, Miss Lettie Smith, who is spoken of in highest terms. W. N. Jorgensen took a photograph of the school and flag.

J. Ennes, representing the Blue Mountain Telephone Co., is interviewing our citizens today in regard to connecting Burns with the outside world. They have arranged to connect with other lines so it will be possible to talk with parties anywhere between Portland and Salt Lake City. The company want a bonus of $1,500 from our citizens to be taken out in telephoning.

John South, who for several years had charge of the Pranch under Mr. French, has been selected to take charge of the business of the French Glenn Live Stock Company in this county. Mr. South has been a resident of San Francisco for some time and has not been on the range in this county during the last 5 or 6 years, but he is perfectly familiar with the affairs of his former employer and no doubt is the best man that can be found to look after the property. He is now at the Pranch, as is also Mr. Glenn, one of the Company.

THE TIMES-HERALD and St. Louis Republic for $2 a year in advance.

F. S. Reider, bookkeeper at the P-ranch, was in Burns Tuesday.

We understand that Cora, a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smyth of Happy valley, has been very sick of typhoid fever, but is now convalescent.

Len Walton had the misfortune to fall on the ice one day last week and hurt his back, which kept him in bed for several days. He is now able to be on the streets again.

It has been trying hard to snow this winter but so far it is almost a failure. We hope, though, the mountains will catch enough to insure good crops this year.

We understand that Miss Nannie Walls, daughter of Tasa Walls of Catlow, was married to a Mr. Glover, at Winnemucca, last Sunday. The groom is a stock man of Eagle valley. The many friends of the bride in this county join us in extending congratulations.

The U. S. circuit and district judge has handed down a decision in the matter of the settlers vs. the Wagon Road Co. that if the settler has held peaceful possession and never in any way recognized the right of the company for a period ten years, such possession gives the settlers a complete title under the law of the state. This decision was made in cases carried up from Malheur county.

Harney Locals.

W. D. Huffman, one of Diamond's substantial republicans, with his family passed through town last week on his way to Burns.

Services were held in the new church building on Sunday evening.

The genial Sam Roach has been spending a few days in town. Sam has great faith in richness of the Trout creek gold mines.

The latest in Harney's social circle, is a dancing club, with Mr. Fitzgerald as manager and general instructor.

There is some talk among a few "old timers" of re-organizing the once-famous literary society of Harney.

Mart Alberson and Frank Bennett started for White Horse on Monday. They intend to work down there the remainder of the winter.

The school was in charge of Mrs. Julia Clark Monday and Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Clark is attending school this winter preparatory to taking the teachers examination in the spring. She has, so far, shown exceptional ability in this line.

Curt Lunday and Chas. Davis are in town attending school this winter.

Bob Copeland of Pueblo and Chas. Riley of the Grove are looking after their stock in this section.

According to late reports, the authenticity of which has never been doubted, Harney can boast of 49 "fiddlers." The statistician, whose data shows such wonderful development in the musical line, must be impressed with the aesthetic feeling so prevalent among us.

The large bulk of land recently deeded to Henry Miller by F. A. Hyde, which deeds have been received at the clerk's office for recording, is not situated north of the lake as at first reported. The land all lays south of the lake and the French-Glenn Livestock Co. formerly paid taxes on part of it, while at least three fourths of the land was not assessed to any one. There are 17,397.53 acres in all, situated in the following townships and ranges: Tp27-R31, 23-31, 28-33, 29-33, 29-33, 30-32, 30-33, 31-32, 31-32, 32-32, 32-32, 33-31, 33-32, 34-31, 33-32, 35-32, 35-32, 35-32, 35-32, 40-31, 28-31, 29-33, 35-32, 35-32.

The democratic state central committee met at Columbia hall, Portland, on the 8th inst. Twenty one counties were represented and eight of the remaining eleven were represented by proxies. The purpose of this meeting was the arrangement for the meeting of the next democratic state convention. It was agreed to hold the convention on March 23, in the city of Portland, but the executive committee was empowered to change the date if it saw fit to do so. The apportionment will be made on the vote cast for Hon. W. J. Bryan for president in 1896, one delegate for every 200 votes and one for each additional major fraction thereof, and also one at large for each county. This gives Harney 6 delegates. A total of 263 delegates. The following executive committee was appointed: Thomas Dealy, Clatsop; J. J. Daly, Polk; W. H. H. Meyers, Washington; W. J. Westcott, Marion; J. J. Cook, Clackamas. F. A. E. Starr, chairman and Geo. E. Stout, secretary of the state committee were added as ex officio members of the executive committee.

E. L. Oliver Out on Bonds.

The preliminary examination of E. L. Oliver for the killing of Peter French, closed last Thursday evening. The state had several witnesses on the stand, but the defense did not call any witnesses. Judge Webster, attorney for defendant, made a brief address and demanded the defendant be admitted to bail at $10,000, which was furnished with the following sureties: N. J. Simmons, J. B. Craig, H. M. Horton, A. S. Ward, H. B. Simmons and Fred Lunberg for the sum $1000 each, and W. D. Huffman for $4000. Mr. Oliver left for his home last Saturday.

County Court.

McDonald & Altnow granted a liquor license for a period of six months beginning Jan 5, '93, and ending July 6th.

The following were appointed to assess damages to the French-Glenn Live Stock Co. on the Meander line road: C. Cummins, O. B. Dingle and Geo. A. Smyth, to meet at the house of Alva Springer on the 25th day of January.

The jury list for the ensuing year was drawn.

The various road supervisors made their reports and settlements.

It was ordered that the clerk draw a warrant in favor of John Witzell for $14.15 for taxes which was wrongfully assessed.

Court is still in session.
