Old Moore's almanac, which won notoriety last year by predicting the Paris fire, predicts a terrible civil war for 1898 in the United States, the death of the Russian Czar, and the kidnapping of the young king of Spain, and about the second week of November of this year communication will be opened with Mars.

A man had been up for an examination in scripture, had failed utterly and the relations between him and the examiner had become somewhat strained. The latter asked him if there were any text in the whole Bible he could quote. The student pondered and then repeated: "And Judas went out and hanged himself." "Is there any other verse you know?" asked the examiner. "Go thou and do likewise," replied the student. There was a solemn pause and the proceedings terminated.

Miss Maude Durrant, sister of Murderer Durrant, is a beautiful young lady of 18, who is already attracting attention at Berlin, where she is studying, as a musician of rare promise.

"It is surprising how impractical some very learned men are." "Yes, there's Prof. Linguist, for example. He spent over half his life in acquiring fluency in nine or ten different languages and then went and married a wife who never gives him a chance to get a word in edgeways."

Few Americans may be aware of the fact that Russia, huge, powerful, despotic Russia, now bitterly regrets the selling of Alaska to the United States, and that in the more intimate political circles in the Czar's capital today there is a deal of bluster about the mistaken policy which turned over so rich a country to another nation. This sentiment has been growing for years, but the discovery of the Alaskan gold fields has greatly stimulated it. For Alaska, with all its forests, fisheries and gold-stocked mountains, was one day Russia's own domain.

England finds gold is mightier than gunpowder and the cannon, and has gone into China with money and offers the government a large sum for the territory leased by Germany.

For a short distance a lion or a tiger can out run a man, and can equal the speed of a horse, but they lose their wind at end of about a half a mile. They have little endurance, and are remarkably weak in lung power.

The Rothschilds have had railroad survey made into the Yukon mines.

Gen Gomez in a letter to the N. Y. World says that Spain is whipped and is now only debating a graceful way to back down. It is thought at Washington that Spain looks to this government for a proper arbitration of the matter.

A woman by the name of Mrs. J. E. Griffith, wife of an Ohio representative, is now ill of nervous prostration caused by being held in a room all night with Hanna and his lackies who were entreating her to use her influence with her husband to vote for Hanna. They offered bribes, and then made threats, but all availed them nothing. The case is now before the grand jury.

In the last thirty years 500,000 divorces have been granted in the United States. For the 19 years from 1867 to 1886 statistics show that the divorce high water mark belongs to those who have been married about 4 years. Beginning with the one-year married people the total is, roundly, 15,000 and for the 4 years married the total mounts up to nearly double—25,000.

When a wife puts on too many airs the atmosphere of her home is not what it should be.
