Lewis & Byrd,

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

BURNS, — — — OREGON.

We have for sale the following City property in Burns:

Eighteen Blocks in the Morrison Addition and the whole of the Brown Addition, containing the most desirable residence property in town. This property is offered very cheap for cash or in installments.

Lots 2 and 6 in Block 29. This is known as the J. S. Kenyon residence and is in a very desirable neighborhood and is offered very low for cash. This is undoubtedly the best bargain in town.

A good ranch containing 160 acres, on Poison Creek, 7 miles North East known as the A. Hembree place, for sale low for cash or on reasonable time. Undisputed title.

In farm property we have 160 acres of good agricultural land 7 miles south of Burns. Thirty acres in cultivation, good house and barn. Title perfect and a bargain at $1100.

No trouble to show property or give prices.

We have a nice farm, containing 385 acres, two miles southwest of Eugene, Oregon, and on the gravel road. Good dwelling, good barn and outhouses; good orchard and well fenced, worth $7,000, to trade for a stock ranch in Eastern Oregon of equal value.

160 acres good hay land, 9 miles South of Burns. This property is in good condition and is the best bargain in the Valley.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

A matchless woman—and old maid.

More people die from head failure than heart failure.

Blushing unseen—A diamond scarf pin under a napkin.

A clove scented breath is even now suspicious to your wife.

The inveterate bar-room patronizer is never short a cent (scent).

Time may steal along as it pleases, but can't be arrested.

What is it that gets a man down after he gets it down—whiskey.

X-rays on a runaway match—Runaway with, then runaway from.

Love is a disease that keeps a man sick long after he has got the cure.

It is hard for a penurious fellow to swallow a quinine pill in Klondike. They cost $2 a piece.

A fashionable dress never covers a warm heart. It is cut too low in the neck.

The girl who jilts young men is now termed the Klondike girl on account of the chill she causes.

He is an economical man who smokes 25 cent cigars and save the burnt matches to kindle fires with.

In Klondike—"Ten dollars is rather high for a stick of candy." "Taint candy, its frozen whiskey."

The Klondike youth who tells his sweetheart that he loves the ground she walks on is likely to be mercenary in his love.

"Don't you think the paper worth $2 a year?" "Well, I can't tell you: I don't know how much your paper and ink costs you."

A young attorney spent two days on a case and at the end did not know which side he was on. It was a case of champagne.

She—I dread the thought of my thirty-fifth birthday. He—One should make it a point to banish unpleasant memories of the past.

They had just been married when the groom turned to the preacher and said, "Say, parson isn't part of this service just like the republican platform, never expected to be carried out?"

A scientist thinks he has discovered the very novel idea of how to operate on a woman's brain so that she would thereafter attend to her own business. What a God send to humanity.

A Arkansas man drank to the following toast the other day: "Here's to the administration:
It beats the whole creation;
For we can't pay Rents,
And cotton's five cents
All over the whole plantation."

A Kansas young man has invented a flying machine. He says that a wild goose can carry 2 or 3 pounds besides its own weight and that he proposes to rig a harness so as to hitch 200 or more a basket, jump in and drive off. He has asked some capitalist to advance $1,000 so that he might fix up the [illegible] and basket.

Fits Cured

From U.S. Journal.

Prof. W. H. Fiske, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise any one wishing a cure to address Prof. W. H. FISKE, M. D., 4 Cedar St., New York.

CATARRH

Is a LOCAL DISEASE and is the result of colds and sudden climatic changes.

It can be cured by a pleasant remedy which is applied directly into the nostrils. Relief is instantly and a thorough cure follows. A cold in the head at once.

Ely's Cream Balm is acknowledged to be the most thorough cure for Nasal Catarrh, Cold in Head and Hay Fever of all remedies. It opens and cleanses the nasal passages, stops pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. Price 50c. at Druggists or by mail.
