

Lewis & Byrd,

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

BURNS, — — — OREGON.

We have for sale the following City property in Burns:

Eighteen Blocks in the Morrison Addition and the whole of the Brown Addition, containing the most desirable residence property in town. This property is offered very cheap for cash or in installments.

Lots 3 and 6 in Block 29. This is known as the J. E. Kenyon residence and is in a very desirable neighborhood and is offered very low for cash. This is undoubtedly the best bargain in town.

A good tract containing 160 acres, on Peison Creek, 7 miles North East known as the A. Homerson place. For sale low for cash or on reasonable time. Un disputed title.

In farm property we have 160 acres of good agricultural land 7 miles south of Burns. Thirty acres in cultivation, good house and barn. Title perfect and a bargain at $1100.

No trouble to show property or give prices.

We have a nice farm, containing 285 acres, two miles southwest of Eugene, Oregon, and on the gravel road. Good dwelling, good barn and outhouses, good orchard and well fenced, worth $7,000, to trade for a stock ranch in Eastern Oregon of equal value.

160 acres good hay land, 9 miles South of Burns. This property is in good condition and is the best bargain in the Valley.

Tenor (singing): "Oh, 'appy, 'appy, 'appy be thy dreams—"
 Professor: "Stop, stop! Why don't you sound the H?"
 Tenor: "It don't go no 'higher than G!"—Republic.

When a man gets a knock on the funny bone he is apt to take it seriously.—Boston Transcript.

He: If I should kiss you what would you do?
 She (startled): "I—! never measure an emergency until it arises."

He: "If this emergency arose now how would you meet it?"
 She (courageously): "Face to face."—Tri-Bits.

"Dearest, you blush like the roses red,"
 Said he, and thought that rather neat;
 In after years he simply said,
 Great Caesar, Jane!
 "You're red as a beet!"
 —Indianapolis Journal.

"My husband," said Mrs. Strongley, "wouldn't think of going out nights and leaving me at home alone."
 "Well," replied Mrs. Snippley, "I'm glad to say that my husband has never had the least cause to be afraid to do that." Now they don't speak.—Cleveland Leader

"Why don't you marry her?"
 "Because of shyness on both sides?"
 "How's that?" "She is shy by nature, and I of cash."

Why make foreign trips
 In the spring or in the fall?
 Let Spain buy the ships
 And we'll capture 'em all!
 —Atlanta Constitution.

Won't those cigars taste good that will come to us in the near future under the stamp of a purified Havana and a Cuban Republic.

An east end little boy was very anxious to have his pious uncle give him a little Jersey calf, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. The uncle said, "Johnnie, when you want anything very much, you should pray for it." "Well," said the little fellow, "do you believe, uncle, that God would give me a calf if I should pray for one?"

"Why, of course," said the good uncle.

"Well, uncle," said the boy, "give me this calf and you pray for the other calf."

A little girl in closing her prayer the other night, said, "A-men and a women."

Her mother said, "My child why do you say a-women?"
 "Oh," said she, "I don't want the men to have it all!"

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

18 pages a week—156 papers a year FOR ONE DOLLAR.

Published every Alternate Day except Sunday.

The Thrice-a-Week Edition of The New York World is first among all "weekly" papers in size, frequency of publication, and the freshness, accuracy and variety of its contents. It has all the merits of a great $6 daily at the price of a dollar weekly. Its political news is prompt, complete, accurate and impartial as all its readers will testify. It is against the monopolies and for the people.

It prints the news of all the world, having special correspondence from all important news points on the globe. It has brilliant illustrations, stories by great authors, a capital humor page, complete markets, departments for the household and women's work and other special departments of unusual interest.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE TIMES HERALD together one year for $2.25. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.
