The delegates to the democratic state convention have all returned and are very enthusiastic. The prospects for electing the entire function ticket, state and district, they say are very good. They were anxious to have a democrat at the head of the state ticket but when it could not be agreed upon they submitted and will do all they can to elect it.

Jos. Hill met with a painful accident one day last week by getting his hand caught in a rope which was on a wild horse. The animal pulled loose from his cap and took the end of a flag with him.

The "Texas Resort" has been completely renovated out side and in and now presents a very inviting appearance. Welcome & Bassett, the new proprietors invite the public to call and see them.

L. Woldenberg Sr. returned from below via Prineville yesterday. His family are at Ontario and will be brought in by L. Woldenberg Jr. by private conveyance. Mr. Woldenberg was accompanied home by Christian Greg, a first class brewer, who will take charge of the new brewery and will have it in operation about May 15th.

The democrats of this county are in perfect harmony. The prospects for electing the entire ticket were never better, having no fights among them for the nominations for office, the convention will pass off quietly and with good men on our ticket we can simply "win in a gallop."

Ed Hanley came in from Seattle Wash. last week. He has been buying stock and shipping them to Alaska for the past two months, and is here, we understand, to buy horses. It was understood here when Mr. Hanley left that he would go to Dawson city, but he informs us that he has not been further north than Seattle.

The poverty party last Wednesday was a very enjoyable affair. Mrs. Ray Smith and S. Whitton were crowned princess and prince of poverty. The seven members of Mrs. and Mrs. A. J. M. Democratic Convention.

The democratic convention to be held in this place next Saturday will be one of the most harmonious this county has ever known.

The following names are mentioned for places on the ticket: Geo. Sizemore will ask for the nomination of county judge. Mr. Sizemore has been a resident of Burns for a number of years and has many friends.

Henry Richardson has announced himself as a candidate for clerk and we are reliably informed that W. J. Johnson will also be before the convention for that office.

A. J. McKinney, our present efficient sheriff, will be nominated to succeed himself. That A. J. McKinney will be the next sheriff of Harney county is almost certain.

Joe Buchanan is considered the strongest man for assessor and will make a good race.

The name of T. B. James is mentioned for commissioner. "Dad" James is an "old war horse" in the ranks of democracy and would make a good public servant.

M. L. Lewis, the present justice of the peace of this district, will ask for the nomination of treasurer. Mr. L. is well qualified to fill the position and has a good following.

School superintendent will again be tendered to W. C. Byrd, the present incumbent.

M. Fitzgerald will be asked to accept the nomination for county surveyor.

E. B. Reed is a candidate for the office of justice of the peace for this district.

Believe we give the delegates from precincts heard from up to time of going to press:

Burns—J. W. Biggs, Julian Byrd, M. Fitzgerald, C. W. McClain, H. Smith, Charles McGee, Gus M. Simpson, Sam Miller, W. L. Wasley, Geo. Schler.

Harney—George James, Theo. H. Lane, Phoebe Withers, Geo. M. Kinson, Henry G. 41.

Idaho—L. M. Tompkins, J. T. Briggs.

Polson Creek—Tom. Baker, W. M. Stewart, Jap. H. Kinison.

Drewsey—Wm. Altnox, John Johnson, Ed Howard.

Crane Creek—Clarence Cary, C. R. Peterson.

M. McKinley should run in fear that no question is settled until it is settled right, and that no settlement that leaves the Spanish flag flying over Cuba will be wrong.

Price Luigi, of Italy, is clearly a man of both means and nerve; he is backing an Alaskan gold-mining party, and will lead in person a North Pole expedition.

Road Land Tax Case.

In the United States court at Portland, April 1st, in the case entitled Charles Albehl vs. A. Giffney, sheriff of Harney county, to restrain the collection of taxes on road land, Judge B. Dinger decided in favor of the defendant, holding that the board of equalization had the power according to the laws of this state and the redress of the complainant was to appear before the board at the time notified and the error, if an error, corrected.
