FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE—

The democratic county convention last Saturday was a representative body of [illegible] and put forth the ticket that appears at the head of this column, which will be supported by every democrat in Harney county. All the nominees command the respect and confidence of the citizens of this county and men to whom can be trusted the management of our county affairs without prejudice or partiality. They belong to no [illegible] to reduce the indebtedness of Harney county. It is without doubt the strongest ticket in the field and will be victorious in June.

The Chinaman who has accused Li Hung Chang of selling out China to Russia for 1,500,000 taels evidently means business, as he has promised the Emperor that if he will promise to behead Li, if he proves the charge, he will agree to have his own head cut off if he fails. Li can't call that a case of blackmail.

Surely the Millennium is coming with a rush, now that a bill making ex-Confederates who may serve in the U. S. army or navy for ninety days pensionable, under the depew act, has been favorably reported to the house.

There is no need for the purchase of the Danish Islands for a coaling station when by waiting a short time we can establish all the coaling stations we want upon either Cuba or Porto Rico.

The time for talking is over; it is now time to do a little fighting, in order to drive the odious emblem of treachery, otherwise known as the Spanish flag, from the western hemisphere forever.

Spain need not bother about any further concessions. Uncle Sam has made up his mind to have what he wants.

England very seldom gets left in a land-grabbing game, to any part of the world. It has just secured a slice of China, and is after [illegible]

When you wish to call a man the meanest and dirtiest sort of a liar just tell him he is like a Spanish diplomat.

The destruction of the Maine will prove to have been a "consummate fiend of," indeed, for Spain.

Report of School Committee.

[illegible], Ore., April 7, 1898.

To the Board of Directors of the [illegible] of school district No. 3, Harney county, Oregon:

Gentlemen—We, your committee appointed at the regular annual school meeting held at the school house, March 7, 1898, for the purpose of investigating the financial status of District No. 3, beg to submit the following report, bringing April 1, 1898, the date of the last report submitted to this district by Messrs. J. B. Huntington, I. S. Geer and P. L. Shisler, which we find is in error: Reporting this district $100 in debt at that time. We finding said indebtedness to be $17 11, by warrants cancelled [illegible] and issued prior to said report.

The Eugene Register declares emphatically that Wm. R. King is "Penoyer's satellite," for the United States senate. It adds:

"If the people of Oregon desire to be misrepresented in Washington by Mr. Penoyer, the arch demagogue of American politics, let them support W. R. King for governor."

The Register does not know King. It does not understand the Union organization. We do not believe it can be handled in the interest of Penoyer, Mitchell, Corbett, or any other man. The Union party Union is a protection against that.—Ex.

A great deal depends upon the result of the coming election in Oregon. Upon it hangs in a great measure the future of the cause of bimetalism in the United States. the elections this year will indicate whether we shall return to the money of the constitution or fasten a single standard upon the people. Let the friends of bimetalism stand solidly together and put up a battle royal against the common enemy.—Jacksonville Times.

H. B. Mace has established a freight line between this city and Burns, and will make a round trip per week. He left with his first load of [illegible] for the interior last Tuesday.—Huntington Herald.

The Burns stage line is now under the management of Mitchell & Cozad. Ben Cozad having purchased the interest of Jack Caldeck. The boys have got there and are doing a driving business.—Canyon News.

John Hunsaker, who has ridden U. S. mail stage line from Mitchell to Prineville, has resigned the position, to take charge of the Prineville branch of the Shaniko-Prineville stage line. Mr. Hunsaker has been in the employ of Mr. Wolf since the present contractor, for the Columbia Southern, has been in charge of the Prineville Burns line for many years, and it is a hard job for anyone to give good service for the figure at which the contract has been let. Mr. Hunsaker will do it.—Vale Advocate.
