TERSE, TART AND TIMELY.

One of the best things taught in our navy is to hit what is shot at.

One Stone doesn't appear to be just as satisfactory as another Stone to the anti-Quayites, of Pa.

The Jack Astor Battery is getting almost as much advertising as Tedd's "rough riders."

He ought to be, and probably will be Captain Hobson when he gets out of that Spanish prison.

That wall street regiment seems to have been like a great many other things started in that locality—a fake.

If congress doesn't look out some very questionable legislation will be put through under the "war measure" label.

The war-revenue bill provides for bonds, owing to a division of the democrats in the senate, just as Mr. McKinley wanted it to do.

Tom Reed and John Sherman might form an alliance: they are both opposed to the war, and both opposed to the annexation of Hawaii.

We trust that no democrat will vote for the adjournment of congress until the war has closed and the terms of peace been approved by congress. To do so would be to make a serious mistake.

It is not surprising that Blanco should have issued an order banishing all foreign newspapers correspondents from Cuba; he doesn't wish the outside world to how badly off he is.

Senator Wolcott is unduly sensitive over any reference to the failure of the bimetallic commission's visit to Europe. He could not help the inevitable and nobody holds him responsible, unless it be himself.
