TWO BATTLES.

Four Miles Northwest of Juragua Cuba, June 23, 2 p. m., per Dispatch Boat Wanda, via Kingston, June 25 —Dismounted American cavalrymen forcing their way over the mountain trails encountered Spanish infantry in a dense thicket on a high plateau almost overlooking the city of Santiago de Cuba and cutting them, after a sharp battle lasting an hour. This afternoon, strongly reinforced by the arrival of additional forces, the cavalrymen held a position a little more than five miles from the Spanish stronghold in southeastern Cuba, preparing for a general movement on that city.

Today's victory was not gained without shedding of American blood, and one officer and 12 of the troops lie under the ground on the field of battle, while about 50 others, including six officers, are in the field hospital suffering from wounds. Of these 8 or 10 probably will die. It is believed the enemy's loss was at least 50 dead, besides many wounded.

TWO BATTLES.

Practically two battles were fought at the same time, one by the rough riders under the immediate command of Colonel Wood, on the top of the plateau, and the other on the hillside several miles away by the regulars with whom was General Young.

The expedition started from Juragua, marked on some Cuban maps as Altares, a small town on the coast nine miles east of Morro Castle, which was the first place occupied by the troops after their land at Baiquiri last Wednesday.
Information was brought to the American army headquarters by Cubans on Thursday that forces of Spanish soldiers had assembled at the place where the battle occurred to block the march on Santiago.

CUBANS FAILED HIM.

General Young went there to dislodge them, the understanding being that the Cubans under General Castello would co-operate with him, but the latter failed to appear until the fight was nearly finished. Then they asked permission to chase the fleeing Spaniards, but as the victory was already won, General Young refused to allow them to take part in the fight.

Exposition at Portland.

We have just received the following, which should be taken advantage of:

TO THE EDITOR:—The exposition to be held in Portland this year, opening September 22d and closing October 22d, promises to be the largest, best and most successful ever held. In 1895 and 1896 it was given under the auspices of well known business men of Portland, as it will be this year. It is conducted, not for profit or gain on the part of the committee, but to display to the people of the Pacific Northwest and to many eastern visitors who may be sojourning in our midst, the wonderful resources of this favored portion of our country.
There will be given prizes, consisting of cups, medals and diplomas for all the best and most meritorious exhibits of grain, grasses, fruit, (fresh and preserved) vegetables, etc., and no doubt many of your patrons will desire to make exhibits.

Exhibits from your section will certainly take some prizes. Space is free; exhibits will be transported without cost and there will be no expense to any exhibitor. The managers would be pleased to have you inform your readers of our intentions. Any one wishing to make exhibits or inquiries concerning the exposition will receive a prompt answer by addressing the secretary of the Oregon Industrial Exposition, Portland, Oregon.

Very truly yours,
B. S. PAGE

Chairman Committee on State and County Exhibits.

"What's all them soldiers marchin' round the town fer?" asked Bill Good, who has not been in the city for three months and refused to take a paper because he dont believe what they say.

"They are going to whip Spain," replied the polite policeman.

"Spain! Whereabouts is that in the jography?"

"Over near Cuba some place."

"Yes, I recollect Cuba on the map. What kicked up the fuss?"

"They sunk the Maine."

"Out where Jim Blaine lives?"

"No, the battleship Maine.
They put a mine under it."

"And did the mine cave in."

"No, no, no! it blew it up."

"One of them dern missed shots ch?"

"Oh, go on! You're to green Go and subscribe for some paper and get your neighbor to read it to you."

The old man plodded along on his way, muttering that he would never take news paper, for he knew more now than all the papers in christendom.—Denver Times.

He asked her if he might kiss her Dewey lips, and she replied that he was as strong as Sampson and she was but a weak girl without the power to successfully resist him, and then the Schley young thing assumed a defenseless attitude, and, by Evans' nautical cuss took advantage of her helplessness and kissed her once for every star in the unionjack. And

Geo. Shelley, President.
J. J. Donagan, Secretary.

the next day another naval engagement was told of in the papers.—Denver Post.

The fathers of the Republic possibly foresaw that our dominion would be extended to the West Indies, and it is not improbable those who formulated the Monroe Doctrine did not consider our sovereignty over the West Indies incompatible with the principles they enunciated; but not even Thomas Benton contemplated the spectacle of the Stars and Stripes flying over the Philippines when, in a glorious burst of eloquence, he waved his hand westward and exclaimed: "There is the East—there lies India!" We are living in a swift age.
