A dispatch to the Daily News from Gibraltar tells a long story of a pseudo wealthy Mexican who was lionized for six weeks at Madrid and Cadiz, dined with Admiral Camara, inspected the fleet and defenses, and in every way won the confidence of the officials, only to disappear the moment a warrant was issued for his arrest. He turned up afterward in Tangiers, confessed to the correspondent of the Daily News that his name was Fernandez, and that he was captain in the Second Texas rangers. His Spanish descent, he said, enabled him to deceive all the Spaniards while acting as the confidential agent of the United States government.

The Umatilla Indians have concluded their Fourth-of-July celebration. It began the 3d and ended on the 12th. About 700 Indians including visitors from agencies in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, participated. The principal amusements of the Indians were dancing, horse racing, parades, gambling and loitering in the shade. The gambling game was "stick," and money, blankets, hats and saddles were won and lost. This game is one purely of chance, and becomes exciting to Indian, but he is always fair in his dealings. Whenever he loses he gives up his goods as freely as he takes them.

A copy of the Genoa, N. Y., Tribune, received by Mr. B. F. Conrad, of this city, contains an account of the celebration of the anniversary of the appointment of the oldest postmaster in the U. S. who is Roswell Beardsley postmaster at North Lansing, N. Y. He was appointed in 1828, when 19 years of age and has served faithfully for 70 years. Administrations have come and gone, and he too has gone on sorting and delivering mail to the contented patrons of the little New York office. He is hale and hearty at 89 years of age and still conducts the office.—Albany Herald.
