50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE PATENTS TRADE MARKS DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS & C. Scientific American. MUNN & Co. 351 Broadway, New York

To weigh 500 pounds and have a waist measure of four feet seven inches, and to be besides an excellent cook, a skillful seamstress and, withal a dutiful daughter, all at the age of 28 years, are qualities rare among young women of these days, but all this good fortune belongs to Miss Mollie Atchison, of Oplyke, Ill., according to Leslie's Weekly. Miss Atchison thinks no more of picking up a barrel of salt weighing 300 pounds and putting it on her shoulder than most young women would think of shouldering a golf-stick. In spite of her excessive avoirdupois Miss Mollie wears only a No 6 glove and a shoe of the same number. Her mother says that she has broken down nearly every bed in the house and has cracked most of the chairs, but as she makes herself very useful indoors and out, milks the cows, hoes the garden and helps her father run a cross-cut saw, those damages to the furniture are viewed with a lenient eye.

Wilhemina, who is to be crowned Queen of the Netherlands on September 6 next has personally sent to Mr. Bok, the editor of The Ladies' Home Journal—himself a Hollander by birth—one of her private portraits for publication in the next number of his magazine. It is the last portrait which will be taken of the little lady before her coronation, and will be printed in connection with a specially prepared sketch, showing the personality of the first Queen of Holland from every point of view.
