We buy for cash and get the very lowest prices. This fact is well known among all large dealers who seek our trade. We want your trade and will give you the same advantage we have in buying for cash.—N. Brown & Sons.

Dr Marsden informs us that the skull of Frank Cummins was not fractured but the young man is suffering from concussion of the brain. His mental condition is some better being quite rational at times, and hopes are now entertained for his complete recovery.

Eugene Boon has gone to St Louis Mo., to enter a medical college with the intention of placing M. D. to his name. Eugene is a young man worthy of success. His many friends in this county hope to see him with us again in a few years and that he may have a large and lucrative pratice.

E. B. London and C. H. Voegtly left by private conveyance for Portland last Monday. Mrs London, who has been visiting her parents for the past two months will return with her husband. Mr. Voegtly goes on business and will perhaps be met in Portland by his wife, who is on a visit to her old home in California.

Dr Volp was called to Drewsey the first of the week to see Oscar Baldwin, a county charge, who was reported to have blood poison caused from having his arm broken. The doctor left the patient improving. While there he was called in to see the family of M. F. Howard three of whom were suffering from various complaints.

Rev Henry Barnhart of Morrow county who has been here for a a few days, left for his home yesterday, but will quite likely return in about two weeks and take charge of the Baptist church. While here he married two couples and that with other things has tended to give him a good opinion of this place and he thinks it would be a desirable place to locate.

Ed Test, manager of the Oregon Forwarding Co., at Ontario, came in last Monday. He expects to remain for a few days and look after the interests of his business and will be accompanied home by Mrs Jones.

Call on the leading merchants and examine their fine stock of goods. Get their cash prices and you will save a trip to the railroad if you contemplate such a step. N. Brown & Sons, you know, are the leading merchants and can undersell anybody.

A very nice collection of old coins confederate bonds, Japanese, Chinese and other foreign nations, arrow heads, etc., are on display at the Capitol saloon. This colection is the property of Deputy Clerk Belder and is the result of much hard work and was surely not collected in a short time.

There is some disease among the horses of this section that is a mystery. One of the horses driven by Dr. Marsden took sick near Lawen yesterday, while coming in and in about half an hour it died. The other was also sick but the doctor gavit some medicine and it recovered. Joe Hodgepth lost a horse in the same way recently.

We would suggest that parties who are in the habit of going to the railroad for supplies leave a list of what they desire to purchase, at the general merchandise stores in Burns and get their prices. Even if it is a few dollars higher than it would cost you at the railroad it would pay in the long run to make your purchases at home, with home people who give you a chance to pay in work etc. Leave all the money at home possible.

Geo. Smythe has gone to Diamond on a postal inspector in the East of the week.

Call and see Mason & London's exhibitor.

Word comes to us that the leading firm at the railroad are selling the best Island City flour at $4 per barrel. The O. C. Co. are the people.

N. Brown & Sons carry a very large line of Oregon City Woolen goods, in Clothing, Blankets and Flannels. They can give you a low cash price on any of these lines.

Mrs Antone Egli was over the week and was accompanied home by her neices Mrs. C. E. Kenyon and Mrs Nora Kauffman who will visit with her for a few weeks.

Money talks all over the world. N. Brown & Sons are now talking for trade that put money on the counter and goes away with good goods at a reasonable price.

The White House Saloon is under the efficient management of two experienced saloon men, Hugh Smith and Geo. Tregaskiss. If you are downhearted and depressed in spirits, give them a call and you will go away a new man.

Mrs. C. A. Byrd has received a stock of corsets, skirt and waist lining, Ladies hose, toweling and other notions. Get her prices before sending away. Stock of fall and winter millinery about Oct 1st.

MARRIED—At the residence of Mrs. Frankie Brenton, on Sept. 18 1898, Mr. H. A. Martin, and Mrs. Ella Fice, of this city, Rev. Henry Barnhart of Heppner, Or. officiating. Mr. Martin, faimliarly known as "Tex" is a young man highly respected by his friends and acquaintances in this county. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnes and has many friends. THE TIMES HERALD extends heart-felt congratulations and wishes the young couple success.

The following stock men were among those who delivered cattle to A. Lucas here last Saturday: W. B. Johnson, Hogan Bros., J. C. Garrett, Garrett Bros., P. M. Cheeney, W. B. Parker, D. R. Thorn, B. J. Baker and Cary Thornberg, of Silver creek. Columbus Johnson, W. L. Best and Joe Street of Buck creek, Fred Dentmen and Joe Smith of Beaver creek. Mr. Lucas started with his band of 850 head of cattle to the railroad the first of the week. The prices paid were $19 to $22 for yearlings, $25 to $28 for twos and $30 to $35 for threes; cows and calves $25 to $30. He will leave with another drive about the 5th of next month.

Dr. Marsden has been kept very busy for the past week. While in Diamond a few days ago attending to Frank Cummins he was called to the ranch of Sylvester Smith to see Mrs Smith who had just returned from a visit to southern Oregon. The lady took sick on the road home and could not see a physician until her arrival. Dr Marsden prescribed for her and left some medicine. He had only been home a few hours when he was sent for Mrs Smith being much worse and when he arrived at Happy Valley 18 hours after she had become worse, he found her in a very critical condition. She was suffering from appendicitis but was not in condition to be operated on—which the doctor found would be necessary if she could recover at all and later an operation was performed. The patient rallied but relief had come to late and she died at 10 o'clock Monday evening. Mrs Smith was a very estimable lady and had been a resident of this county for many years. The remains were entered near her home.

THIS is the way you will act when you hear the excellent tone of a Ludwig Piano. The action is free and easy. The case light and serviceable and an ornament to any parlor. Any one wishing a piano or organ should order now so that they could be brought in before the roads get rough.

Remember the long winter evenings that are to come. How can you spend them more profitable than by studying music?

We can get you anything known in music—give us your orders.
