You can afford to line a dress with the best linings. N. Brown & Sons carry a complete line of dress linings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogan arrived home last week from a visit with relatives in the Willamette. They did not go to the state fair as was intended, on account of Mrs. H. taking sick and confined to her bed for some time. She has fully recovered.

A SURE CURE FOR MISERITS—Call on Mason & London and have your measure taken for a new suit! Absolute fit guaranteed! No one can begin to compare quality, workmanship, finish or prices with us. Call and satisfy yourselves that we are able and willing to do as we say.

Messers Welcome & Johnson of the old Texas Resort are still in business with a first class check-restraurant in connection. Make that your head quarters while here celebrating.

We were shown a letter last Monday written by Col. W. J. Bryan in reply to an inquiry from Mrs. H. L. Brisco about her brother, John Dickenson, who is a private in the Nebraska volunteers now at Jack sonville. Col. Bryan found the young man in good health and instructed the captain to have him write home often so as to save them uneasiness in future. We were also shown several photographs of the Nebraska volunteers, one of Col. Bryan on horseback and one of Maj. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, which were sent by Mr. Dickenson.

Call on C. A. Byrd and get your chairs. He will set them up so they will not fall down and no wiring is necessary.

You can now get parasols at Jorgensen's.

THERE ARE SOAPS and SOAPS. All look pretty much alike, but a little chemical testing shows great differences. Some too alkaline, some too acid, some hardly soap at all.

Now we can't make toilet soap conveniently, but we can buy the right kind and know it is right when we buy it. We have bought 500 boxes of Colgate & Co's. Choice Toilet Soaps.

The prices to you are 10 cents, 20 cents, 25 cents and 35 cents a cake. We have tested them and find they are first quality. They are our leaders and will be as long as the quality is kept up. When it isn't there will be no more of it for sale at our store.
