New and complete stock of Wall Papers and Ceilings at Mason & London's. Prices from 15cts per roll as high as 75cts, to suit all tastes.

The many friends of Frank Moore will be pleased to learn he has taken charge of the H. Cheatham barber shop. He solicits a share of the public patronage. See ad in this issue.

A SURE CURE FOR MISFEITS.—Call on Mason & London and have your measure taken for a new suit! Absolute fit guaranteed! No one can begin to compare quality, workmanship, finish or prices with us. Call and satisfy yourselves that we are able and willing to do as we say.

The trustees of the Presbyterian church of this place have decided to move the building from where it now stands to a new site on the hill. Any one desiring to bid on moving the house or desiring to buy the lots where it now stands, call on Chas. Newell, at the land office.

There is an old, old, story of the foolish virgins, that had no oil in their lamps. You know it, and have read it often. Do not be caught in the same way but be prepared in time, and get your oil of Mason & London. The Headlight is the best, $5.00 per case or we can give you Pearl Oil at $4.50.

We visited the new hardware store of A. V. Racine today and found his shelves filled with as fine an assortment of queensware, china and glassware, as has ever been displayed in our city. Mr. Racine has not received all his goods yet but will open his new store to the public tomorrow (Thursday). He expects to carry a complete stock of hardware of all kinds and solicit a share of the public patronage. See his ad in this issue.

We can fit any and all persons at prices that cannot be equaled.—Mason & London.

John Lavery was brought over from Drewsey last Sunday and turned over to the sheriff. The prisoner had shot at L. C. DeCoudress one day last week, the ball breaking the skin on his face. Lavery had his preliminary before the Justice of that place and bound over in the sum of $1500 to await the action of the grand jury, in default of which he is now in jail where he will remain until the grand jury meets next May. We could not obtain the particulars of the affair not being able to see the parties who brought him over and the prisoner will not talk.

Henry Long's friends put up a cash bond of $2,000 for his release Thursday, and in consequence he was set at liberty and was in Ontario Thursday evening on his way to Caldwell. It was rumored that he was making haste to leave the country before the setting of the grand jury, and would forfeit the bond rather than stand trial, but in conversation with an Advocate reporter Mr. Long stated that he would positively be at Vale to answer the charge brought against him. Sure enough Mr. Long and his friends were promptly on hand Monday and have been conspicuously in evidence ever since awaiting developments.—Ontario Advocate.

Christmas Comes BUT ONCE A YEAR. Be happy and make others happy.

DO YOU

Want to make a useful Christmas present? Come in and see us, possibly we may be able to suggest something to you.

OUR HOLIDAY BOX HAS ARRIVED and we have secured a sort of sub-agency from that estimable gentleman who does the biggest business in the country on the night before Christmas. There are people in this vicinity who will appreciate a present more highly if it is some of our or other handsome and useful novelties, which we have procured for the occasion.

We can't name Prices—you will have to see the goods to judge whether prices and quality are right. We are so sure that both are right that we invite you to compare them. We have a fresh lot of the purest cream candies to be found anywhere in town.
