Wm Riley is quite ill at the ranch of S. Lanphshire, with dropsy. His recovery is considered very doubtful.
Remember that White Fine Expectant will stop that troublesome cough. You will always find it on hand at the City Drug Store.
The Ontario Mattock states that it is rumored that there will be a change in the schedule of the trains about Jan. 1st. Instead of passing that place in the day time, they will go through in the small hours. In that case the contemplated change of the schedule of the O B Stage line would be a benefit to those getting mail at this and other offices along the line.
There will be no regular Sunday school at the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 10 a. m. but a Christmas service by the children at 11 o'clock, to which all are invited. There will also be a Christmas missionary service in the evening, at which time there will be special attention given to the music. No admittance will be charged at either of the services, but in the morning a collection will be taken for the Sunday school and in the evening another for mission.

Geo. Craddock formerly of Silvies passed through our city on his way home from Alaska. He says Alaska is a great country and stock feed is plenty in some parts during the summer.—Canyon News.
The Ontario Mattock is the name of a weekly paper started last week at Ontario, Malheur county, by Ed L. King, a young man recently graduated from Forest Grove university. There is plenty of work in that region for a mattock vigorously wielded.
At last Burns promises to be in a fair way to have a first class furniture store, as we learn that Mason & London are intending to put in a full and complete line of furniture, upholstery goods, mirrors etc. Their line will consist of Eastern made furniture, solid oak, ash, etc, such as can only be made in the East and will be sold at bed rock prices.
A shooting affray occurred at Susanville, Grant county last Thursday afternoon in which Jos Frazier was shot through the lungs with a 45.70 Winchester in the hands of Geo Snodderly. The trouble was caused by Frazier interfering in Snodderly's control of his child, says the Long Creek Eagle.
J. F. Hester, of Malheur city, a young man who has been prospecting on upper Willow creek for the past two years, has suddenly disappeared, and no trace whatever of him can be found. He had been sick for a week, and on the day he disappeared he was seen to leave his room about midnight. Malheur citizens have made a thorough search for the missing man, but without avail.

DO YOU

Want to make a useful Christmas present? Come in and see us, possibly we may be able to suggest something to you.

OUR HOLIDAY BOX HAS ARRIVED and we have secured a sort of sub-agency from that estimable gentleman who does the biggest business in the country on the night before Christmas. There are people in this vicinity who will appreciate a present more highly if it is some of our

PERFUMES, TOILET ARTICLES, ALBUMS, or other handsome and useful novelties, which we have procured for the occasion.

We can't name Prices—you will have to see the goods to judge whether prices and quality are right. We are so sure that both are right that we invite you to compare them. We have a fresh lot of the purest cream candies to be found anywhere in town.
