Dr. Lindsay was called to see Thos Jones last night. Mr. Jones is again confined to his bed with the grip.

HELLO CENTRAL! Call up 'phone No. 14 N. Brown & Sons. I want a two pound can of Chase & Sanborn's famous coffee for breakfast.

A. S. Swain was up from Harney business this week. His daughter, Miss Clare, who has been visiting in Burns since the holidays, accompanied him home.

Miss Ollie has procured rooms in the building north of Welcomes drug store and is prepared to clean and repair clothes for gentlemen and ladies.

A visitor at Canyon City recently bought his stage ticket in a church, got shaved in a brewery and transacted the most of his business in a saloon which was headquarters for most of the professional men.

We noticed Harry Thompson looking very glum and cross the other day, and although almost afraid to approach him, we finally mustered up courage to ask if he had the grip. No, he didn't have it, but the whole family were down with it, even the Chinese cook. That of course was enough.

E. E. Laughlin, who has been under the care of Dr. Marsden for the past six or eight months left for Portland last Tuesday via Canyon. Mr. Laughlin has been troubled for some time past from the effects of white swelling in his leg when a child. He has gone to Portland in order to receive treatment in a hospital.

"Hazel Kirk", the drama now being rehearsed by the Elocution class, will be put on the boards at no distant date. This is one of the best, if not the best, dramas ever played here and should be attended by all who appreciate such productions. Each participant seems specially adapted to the part assigned and the play will surely be a success. The date will be given in our next issue.

We had the pleasure of shaking hands with our old friend Dave Cary, of Crane creek the first of the week. Dave is well and hearty for an old man and says that 'Daddy' Byrd can go him one better on corn stories. He says "Daddy" tried to make him believe that corn stalks grew to a height of 32 feet in "Old Virginia," and that it was necessary to take ladders out in the field in order to reach the ears.

Lee Caldwell handed us a copy of the Waitsburg Times this week which contained two letters from his brother, Lieut. J. B. Caldwell of the Washington volunteers, now at Manila. Mr. Caldwell writes under date of Nov. 25 '98, just before reaching the Philippines, and again Nov. 27th after reaching port. He first mentioned the excellent discipline of the soldiers and officers on board the transport and also gave his impression of the islands, its people, etc. explaining their mode of living, their customs and houses. He said they saw Dexey's fleet while entering the harbor, but as yet had not seen the havoc he had played with the Spaniards.

We are glad to note H. E. Smith again able to be on the street.

Suits from $5.00 up, Pants equally as cheap at Boss Cash Store.

Mr. Riggs of Lawen, was seen on our streets yesterday.

Next Sunday is a special day for Christian Endeavor, which will be observed throughout the country. The Endeavor of this place will meet at the Presbyterian manse and expect a large attendance.

To our patrons and friends at Harney: Call up 'Phone No. 14 and we can supply you with your wants the same day the order is received. N. Brown & Sons, Burns Oregon.

The leading merchants.

There has been a bill introduced in the lower house of the legislature to make it unlawful for any person to pay for or give another a drink of liquor. A fine not to exceed $20 is provided for violation of the law. That's hard on the newspaper men and if we had a vote, we would surely cast it against such an outrage. There is also a bill to raise saloon licenses from $400 to $1000.

D. F. Speigle, who has been in the employ of H. M. Horton of the City Drug Store for the past two years, left last Saturday via Canyon. He goes from here to Portland where he will visit with old friends and see the sights for a few days and then to Cosmopolis, Wash. where he bought half interest in a drug store. During his stay in our little city Mr. Speigle made many friends who will always wish him success in any undertaking. He will be missed from the music circle here where he took a prominent part in both instrumental and vocal.

Sheriff C. W. McDavid, of Humboldt county, Nev. arrived here last Saturday morning, via O-B stage, and left Monday evening over the same route with Geo. Shaw and Lesley Boole, the two prisoners mentioned in our last issue as being accused of robbing a train last July. F. M. Murray went as guard. The latter has been here since last spring and we are informed was in the employ of Wells Fargo Co. to keep an eye on these men who have since been taken prisoners. Mr. Murray worked around at different things, having rode race horses here during the racing season and was not suspected of shadowing any one.

Last Wednesday evening, while standing on a street corner talking to Sheriff McKinnon, we were startled almost out of our wits by hearing a woman scream "The house is on fire." We started in that direction but just as we reached the door it was extinguished. The alarm was given by Mrs. Henry Caldwell, one of the children having knocked a lighted lamp off the table, the fall breaking it. Her daughter, Mrs. Barrows, had a quality rare in women on such occasions. She had the presence of mind to catch up a quilt from the bed and smothered the flames.

A couple were recently married and the bride invited an old maid to attend to the wedding. The cards were sweet and in one corner bore the inscription: "Children not expected." After scanning the invitation closely over her specs, the old lady said: "That's all right, but they'll have them just the same."

Two Cold Feet

are common afflictions, so common, in fact, that I have laid in an extra supply of HOT WATER BOTTLES for the aid and comfort of all frigid-footed people.

The extra supply I mentioned means a good deal. You know the difference between buying a few cheap water bottles and buying a lot cheaply. I bought a lot at a low price. You can buy the same way. The is often in adopting available means to certain ends. The hot water bag or bottle beats the old-fashioned hot brick, and makes sleigh riding an enjoyable success. The hot water bottle has so many uses—as a foot warmer, as a means of applying heat in sickness even as a factor in sleigh riding, that every family should have from one to half a dozen. At my prices every family can.
