We are not so favorably impressed with the bill now before the legislature for a bounty on coyotes, Wildcats, etc., as we were at first. If the above animals are killed off will not the rabbits and squirrels, upon which they live principally, become great pests to the crops and the range? The next thing would be a bounty on rabbits and the taxpayers would have but very little left after a few years of such laws.

The horse the bandit appropriated who robbed Mr. Skelton at West fall, which belongs to Dick Scott was found a few days ago in the mountains this side of Burns, says a Drewsey correspondent to the Long Creek Eagle. He had apparently pulled off the bridle and turned the horse loose with the saddle on, as the saddle was turned underneath the animal when found, and from appearances had been there for several days. This same outlaw is supposed to be one of the two men arrested at Burns for robbing the express train in California in July.

The local dramatic company who will produce 'Hazel Kirk' next Friday night has spared no expense to fix up the stage and scenery and we think our citizens will appreciate the efforts and turn out well.

We are told that some of our citizens can swear that James Shaw, one of the men arrested here last month for robbing a train near Winnemucca, Nev., was seen in Burns on July 15th, '98 the day after the robbery.

We have been having quite a 'spell' of weather since the first of the month. It moderated yesterday morning however and gave us about four inches of snow. The temperature as recorded at the weather bureau station at this place given in another column.

The 'Shadow Social' given by the ladies of the Baptist church last Thursday night was well attended and was a success both socially and financially. We are told one young man paid $8.50 for a shadow. For our part we would like something more substantial than a shadow for that amount. Hope you are satisfied Chas.

Wild Horse. The following communication was crowded out of our last issue: Farmers and stock men are all happy. Ranchers in Wild Horse valley are all prosperous and happy.

The Borax plant is doing a first class business, turning out 3,000 pounds of borax per day.

Wild Horse in the lead! Having fine, mild weather and plenty of snow in the mountains.

All dry stock wintered without any feed whatever, with the exception of meadows and pastures.

There is fine grass growing here at the present time, it being two inches high. Everything beautiful.

The Denio mines are getting richer, with some prospects of getting several other good mines opened up by next spring.

The Wild Horse school has been in session since November 1st with Mr. and Mrs. Scoules' 3 children and one boy of Mr. Ailgard, the borax plant foreman, in attendance. A. D. Gould as teacher.

STREINS MT. AVALANCHE. Andrews, Or., Jan. 19, '99.

CARD OF THANKS. To our friends and neighbors who rendered such valuable assistance during the sickness and death of our child: Sickness and death must come to us all, and at such times the kindness and sympathy of friends helps us to bear up under what seems to be almost too great a grief to be endured. We thank you friends, for what you have done for us, and may you find warm heart and willing hands when the hand of affliction is laid upon you. MR. and MRS. CARY THORNBERG.

IN MEMORY OF GLADYS THORNBERG. When the roses were in blossom, I was happy for a while, For I did not dream that shadowy life's glad sunshine could defile, But a shadow fell about me, Dense and dark on every side, And one evening in the twilight, My little Gladys died.

When the roses had all vanished, On the hill a grave was made, For the fairest, sweetest blossom Ever torn to swoot and fade; But I think, when roses blossom, That her life again shall bloom In a new, perpetual beauty, Beyond the autumn of the tomb. MOTHER.

Two Cold Feet are common afflictions, so common, in fact, that I have laid in an extra supply of HOT WATER BOTTLES for the aid and comfort of all frigid-footed people.

The extra supply I mentioned means a good deal. You know the difference between buying a few cheap water bottles and buying a lot cheaply. I bought a lot at a low price. You can buy the same way. The SECRET OF SUCCESS is often in adopting available means to certain ends. The hot water bag or bottle beats the old-fashioned hot brick, and makes sleigh riding an enjoyable success. The hot water bottle has so many uses—as a foot warmer, as a means of applying heat in sickness even as a factor in sleighriding, that every family should have from one to half a dozen. At my prices every family can.
