JULIAN STUBBS - Editor.

Spain has got the $20,000,000; but what have we got?

It may be that Aguinaldo has been taught the game of "playing possum".

Tom Reed must chuckle every time he thinks about the trouble he has given the republicans by retiring.

Hanna has not yet announced his choice for Speaker of the House; consequently a number of Representatives imagine themselves to have a show.

It is doubtful whether the order of the Post office Department shutting the pamphlets of the Anti-Imperialistic League out of U. S. mails would stand if tested in the courts.

If Bishop Turner, who is preaching the return of the negroes to Africa, can get them to go, he can probably count upon material assistance from the whites of the South.

The Civil Service Commission will have to accompany the statement, in its annual report, that it saves the government $10,000,000 a year with full particulars and affidavits to obtain believers.

Quay figures "Senatorial courtesy" to be stronger than precedent in the Senate, even when he is asking for a seat on credentials similar to those presented by another man whom he voted against seating.

Alger says he would accept the Senatorship from Michigan. Yes, rather guess he would, or any other old office he could get. But what has the Senate done that there should be seven talk of inflicting Alger upon it?

If the report turns out to be true that Russia and England have reached an agreement as to China that will shut American commerce out, there will be no more Anglo-American alliance talk on this side of the Atlantic for awhile.

Foraker and Hanna greatly overdid the thing in their declarations that neither was doing a thing to influence the choice for the republican candidate for Governor of Ohio. That is one of the reasons why we think the chap who first said "all men are liars" wasn't guessing.

The Arkansas anti-trust law is the most drastic ever adopted by a state, but the Texas legislature proposes enacting one that is even more so. If the National government won't fight trusts, it is clear that the States must, if anything is to be saved from their clutches.

If the newspaper correctly reports his escapades, the Princeton newsboy who recently inherited $50,000 by the death of an unknown uncle, is in fair way to follow "Coal Oil Johnnie" who was the wonder of the Pennsylvania oil regions while his money lasted.

The Minneapolis Times intimates through its Washington correspondent that Speaker Reed is not yet out of the political arena. The Times says:

"It is not need of a larger income, or hope of accumulating a fortune, which has led Mr. Reed to forego the activities of a life of party leadership. He simply cannot longer remain politically loyal."

"He dislikes and who is personally disagreeable to the Administration on many points."

The friends of a Washington woman who eloped with one man the day before she was to marry another, say it was a case of hypnotism.

If the Philippine war ends now it will have lasted just long enough to show that under any and all circumstances and conditions the American soldier's the fighter of the age.

Dr. Briggs is preaching Christian love, but his enemies hate him as much as ever and say they will drive him out of the Episcopal pulpit, as they did out of the Presbyterian. This is up-to-date Christianity.

Boss Hanna is now posing as a humorist. He said the other day: "I do not believe in bossism; I am opposed to such methods in politics," which is about the same thing as his Satanic majesty declaring that he didn't believe in hades.

The French people fight on the average of 4,000 duels annually.

The same people who make a lion of a man will also make a monkey of him if he doesn't look out.

Rudyard Kipling says the hardest work he ever done and the hardest work he ever saw done was that in a newspaper office.

Uncle Sam is prompt in paying his bills. Spain got her money for the Philippines just a year after Dewey made the first negotiations for their sale.

"What will be your donation to missionary work this year?" said the minister. "It will be what I pay to Uncle Sam in the way of war revenue," said the citizen.

The Spaniards fought the Filipinos for centuries, and to no purpose. Our troops have been fighting them for weeks—and peace is in sight. We are the people.

Soldier Letter.
Cavite P. I.
March 27 99

ED. TIMES-HERALD.—Sir: Since the last letter I wrote to you, there has been many changes.

Many a brave soldier has gone to sleep from which no reville can awake.

Many a home has found a new sorrow, which time can never efface.

All because of the loyal, liberty loving Americans, freed this down-trodden, ignorant, race of people of the Philippine Island, who if I was to compare him with the American Indian, would find him lacking in honor, with an over abundance of treachery.

I was on guard the night this revolution began.

Heard the cannon which gave alarm, a few minutes after the first rifle shot was fired.

Dewey came here and gave the soldiers of San Roque until 9 o'clock the morning to surrender.

An hour before the time was up they came with a white flag wanting more time which was refused. They went back to their lines and raised a white flag over their block house.

But immediately after set fire to the town. One Battalion of Iowa Battery D. Cal, Heavy Art. Bat. A Wyo. Art. and Nevada Cavalry was ordered to take the town.

They met no resistance except the heat from the fire, which detained them about twenty who staid to fire the town and paid the penalty with their lives.

We followed the rest about three miles when a halt was called for the night, next morning we were building breast works when a volley of maners went over our heads.

Every body dropped what he was working with and reached for his rifle, and several volleys were exchanged without any body being hit on our side, and think their loss was small, as we were firing at 700 yds.

Next day they attacked the out post and succeeded in wounding one man slightly in the arm, but a few shots from the boys Art soon silenced them.

This troop staid there in camp two weeks when we ordered back here to guard the prisoners that have been taken and sent here, we have about 800 of them included with a stone wall all around. All we have to do is to sit on the wall and see that none escape over it, so I have time for reflection and I assure you that during the night my memory often flies back to friends and loved ones at home, and of many pleasant times in Harney and Burns still I think I will stay here if we can get mustered out here as my health is excellent as is all the troop, have only lost one man since we were mustered in.

He died a few days ago of typhoid fever. But by the way two of the troop went on "before Hostilities commenced" into the insurgents line and that is the last we ever saw of them although there is hopes of getting them when Malolos falls. Mote Anon.
