San Francisco now has dead and dumb prize fighters. The poor fellow is to be pitted. Unlike his fellows of the ring, he can't talk, he can only fight.

The Prince of Wales is unquestionably an affectionate and dutiful son, but it seems possible that he may occasionally pass his hand over his bald but still crownless brow and glance from his still hale and healthy mother to his own grandson with the reflection that the baby boy, after all, comes nearer to being in it than he is ever likely to be himself.

Why Because

Do people buy Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to any other, — in fact almost to the exclusion of all others?

They know from actual use that Hood's is the best, i. e., it cures when others fail. Hood's Sarsaparilla is still made under the personal supervision of the educated pharmacist who originated it.

The question of best is just as positively decided in favor of Hood's as the question of comparative value.

Another thing: Every advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla is true, is honest.

Ours are the only tea-fairing works in the United States; Schilling's Best is always fresh-fired when it leaves our hands.
