MANHOOD RESTORED! "I have been suffering from weakness, loss of vitality, and general debility for several years. I have tried many remedies, but have not found relief until I began to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. After using it for a few weeks, I began to feel better, and after a few months, I was completely restored to my former health. I can now do all the work I wish to do, and I feel as well as ever. I am a great believer in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I can recommend it to all who are suffering from weakness and debility."—J. H. B. BOSTON, Mass.

JOHN F. STRATTON'S PATENT Mandolin, Banjo, and other Stringed Instruments. Made by JOHN F. STRATTON, No. 212, 214, 216, 218, E. St., N. Y. C.

The widow of Tom Baker, widow of the latest victim of the Kentucky feud, says she will teach each of her eleven sons to make the killing of a Howard or a White a chief object in life. With eleven healthy young Bakers ready for business there ought to be no trouble in "cooking the goose" of a few of the opposition.

Jockey Tod Sloan is charged by a crank inventor with using an electric appliance of the latter to increase the speed of his horse. This explains his disaster at the Derby. Holocause must have been electrocuted.

The Prince of Wales, the Czarevitch of Russia, Emperor William, President Loubet of France and other grandees of the Old World will be cutting a very poor figure over there shortly. Champio Jeffries is going to visit Europe.
