JULIAN BIRD - - - - Manager.

Reversed in the Supreme Court.

The Portland Oregonian of Aug 8 devotes cousiderapie space to a decision of t' e supreme court in the case of W. V. & C. M. W. R. Co. vs Fracis O'Neill taken up from Malheur county.

We are informed dy one of our leading attorneys that certain points in this case will bear indirectly ou similar cases in this county although they differ in many respects.

This is not a final decision upon the question of Road lands: each case stands on its own merits and many of them are on a better foundation for the settler, as to the facts, than the O'neill case. The supreme court decision in fact only reverses the circuit court upon one point in its instructions.

We regret not having space to give the decision to our readers. A copy of the Oregonian is here on file.

Pueblo Mining District.

We stopped for a few minutes on the street yesterpay evening anb heard an old prospector talk about the possibilities of the gold mines in Harney connty.

We did not learn the gentlemans name but he evidenty knew what he was talking about and says he had prospected in Pueblo district yerrs ago. It was not on account of lack of prospects that he quit the camp, but it was somewhat isolated and the Indians were bad at that time being just before the outbreak in 1878. That the Peublo mines have merit he has not the least doubt. He considers that one of the most promising mining camps today. The mines need to be better known; situated as they are away from a railroad with no direct communication with the outside, it would be necessary to make a very big strike to attract attention. Get the capital to properly develope the camp and it is sure to be a lively place.

We do not know where he got his information but he also stated it was the intention of the people of that section to turn their trade to Burns and Harney valley in the way of supplies, etc., as possible. They say they can do better in some respects here than at Winnemucca and other places south, especially is this true with regard to lumber.

The gentleman just came in from Trout creek where he has been prospecting. His opinion is there is good ground there but it is hard to find. "One canuot follow any theory known to prospectors in that section," he says, because it will not work. Someone will likely strike it however."

—THE TIMES-HERALD and Oregonian for $2 in advance.

Harney county has a very careless deputy sheriff. He left his poker chips lying about and his little daughter swallowed one of them, nearly choking her to death. —Long Creek Eagle.

The worst trick we have heard of in some time was played a few days ago by one of our citizens on a gentleman from the South who is here on a visit. They were hunting ducks south of Burns when the gentleman from the South made a good shot and found after gathering up his birds he had more than he could carry. The Burns man was called to his assistance. Upon arriving he found that the visiting gentleman had double discounted him in killing birds. Not liking that turn of affairs he told the Southerner they were fish ducks and not good to eat and advised him to leave them. Later the Burns man sent a boy out and had the game brought in. We are sorry indeed, to hear of such things and can hardly give it credence but nevertheless we were told by responsible parties.
