Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The wishes of their friends is that they may have long life and happiness.

A very valuable volume is "Hills Manual of Social and Business". It is a large quarto, handsomely produced as far as externals are concerned, but not less attractive and desirable on account of its contest for from its pages the self-instructing student can become familiar with all the formalities general use and almost everything a person should know in this practical age.

Ben Wright Jr. August ... San Pedro Cal.

Two Story Brick.

C. H. Voegtly our hardware merchant has decided to add an upper story to the brick store building now in a course of construction. Harry Smith has been given the contract to put it up.

Mr Voegtly will fit up the upper story for an opera house with stage scenery and all the needed appliances. Burns has long needed a building of this kind and we commend the gentlman for the undertaking of this enterprise which will be of much benefit to the public and a paying business for the owner.

Telephoned Extended.

While at the P-ranch Mr. Templeton was informed by Mr. South that it was the intention of Manager Lusk to have the telephone line extended from Burns to that place in the near future. This will be quite an advantage to not only the French Glenn Live Stock Co, but all those living along the line and further south. Narrows has been wanting the line extended to that place for sometime and as soon as the telephone company are ready will give quite a sum towards it. The citizens of Diamond and the French Glenn Co will then take up the matter of extending it on.

No doubt the line will also be extended to Silver creek this fall The matter will be decided when manager Ennis returns here.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Harney County.

Mary A. Robertson, Plaintiff, vs.
J. A. Robertson, Defendant.

To J. A. Robertson, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon. You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within ten days from the date of the service of this summons upon you, if served within this county; or if served within any other county in this state, then within twenty days from the service of this summons upon you; or if served by publication, then on or before the 14th day of October, 1899; and if you fail so to answer or otherwise plead, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court above entitled for the relief prayed for in her complaint filed herein to-wit: A decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant; that plaintiff be awarded the care and custody of the minor children, the issue of said marriage; and for her costs and disbursements herein, and for such other and further relief as to equity seemeth meet.
