

The Times-Herald.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1900.

Local News.

Frank Cawfield was doing business in our city yesterday.

Why don't you get one of those call bells at Jorgensen's?

"Farmer" Green, the drummer, is one of the first birds of the season. Snowstorms do not stop the "Farmer."

Stoves of all patterns constantly in stock. If we have none to fit call in and we will make you one to order.—Geer & Cummins.

Hopkins & Hunter have received a large consignment of winter robes, horse blankets, sleigh bells, etc., which you are invited to call and inspect.

We have Crockery and Glassware in all varieties. A very large stock of fancy China in many shapes and sizes to select from. Geer & Cummins.

The Windsor Bar is the most attractive and up-to-date resort in Eastern Oregon. Messrs Caldwell & Brenton, the proprietors, are always glad to meet their old friends. Call and see them.

A Cabin of Native Sons of Oregon will be organized in Burns in a short time. James Donegan and others have the matter in hand and already a long list of signatures have been received asking for a charter.

James B. Bunyard and Miss Katie Ferguson were married at Harney last Sunday. Justice Davis officiating. The young couple have a host of friends in Harney county who join us in wishing them a life of happiness and prosperity.

J. F. Mahon was in from Cow creek last Tuesday. He informs us he has been very busy breaking mules and now has 70 young mules well broken and 30 head of horses. Jim expects to go to his Anderson ranch where he has 80 more animals to break.

Mrs. I. S. Geer expects to leave next week for Salem to join her husband. She will visit relatives and friends in Marion county for an indefinite period. Miss Anna Donegan, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. W. E. Trisch, will accompany Mrs. Geer and will continue on to San Francisco, her home.

At a school meeting held last Monday evening the resignation of Prof. Roby, principal of the public schools of this place, was accepted. There is no school in that department at this time, as there was no available teacher for the position and those now employed object to being moved up. Prof. Roby took his departure last Wednesday via Canyon. Ill health was the cause of his resigning.

Silvia R. D. No. 43, I. O. O. F., has installed the following officers for the ensuing term: Clare Swain, N. G.; Annie Brown, V. G.; Alice King, Secy.; Ella Mothershead, Con.; Esther Smith, chaplain; Amy Byrd, warden; Phil Smith, I. G.; Byron Terrell, O. G.; W. C. Byrd, R. S. N. G.; J. M. Dalton, L. S. N. G.; Edith Hunter, R. S. V. G. Gussie Terrell, L. S. V. G.

Archie McGowan, son of George McGowan, is here from Portland on a visit to relatives. Archie spent his boyhood days in this section, leaving here with his parents in '89 and this is his first visit since. He finds many changes and improvements, but many old friends of his boyhood who extend the glad hand of welcome. His father named the town of Burns and was its first postmaster. At that time the town consisted of one store, one hotel, a livery stable, blacksmith shop and two saloons.

Mrs. J. W. Biggs and little daughter and Miss Rovia Swank left on the Canyon stage last Wednesday morning, the former to visit relatives and friends in Canyon and the latter will soon be married at that place to Mr. Virgil Staples. Both of the young people are well known in this vicinity, having made this place their home for several years. Mr. Staples now has a position in the Oregon Forwarding Co's. store at Ontario. Miss Swank held the position of bookkeeper at The Citizens Bank up to the time she left. We extend congratulations in advance.

Up-to-date job printing at reasonable prices.

J. L. Sitz was among our visitors from Lawen this week.

Cranberries—you can get them at Lunaberg & Dalton's.

J. H. Louman & Co have closed the new meat market.

Guns and Ammunition always in stock at Geer & Cummins.

Miss Susie Alberson is here on a visit to her sister Mrs. G. W. Hayes.

Call and see the new invoice of goods just received at Lunaberg & Dalton's.

E. L. Scott and Harvey Muller were in from the P-ranch for several days this week.

Lamps; plain and fancy, in all varieties. Call and see them.—Geer & Cummins.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sanford on Friday Jan. 11th a 7½ pound boy.

Jorgensen is still in the optical business and ready to serve his many customers.

Although cold, we have been having some nice bright weather the past few days.

FOR SALE—One lot and two houses situated on B street. Inquire of Paul Locher.

Tobe Duncan came down from the sawmill this week and has gone to the Warm Springs where he expects to work.

Good wood always on hand at Frank Jackson's wood yard in Burns. Cal Geer now has charge and will deliver wood any place in town.

E. I. G. row, of Prineville, spent several days in Burns this week. He was on his way from the south to his home.

Trisch & Donegan are now prepared to furnish Gambirinus, Wine-bard's "Columbia," and Pabst Beer in any quantity desired, from one bottle to a load.

Inadvertently we failed to report the birth of a baby boy, which was born on January 3d to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ash. He is a fine boy and we hasten to apologize for our seeming neglect.

G. W. Waters of the Cash Variety Store is now selling his entire stock of merchandise at cost for cash. He intends to close out that line as soon as possible and devote all his time to the fruit and produce trade. See his ad.

Jeff Billingsly, of Barren valley, has sold 2000 head of mutton sheep to Wilkerson & Eastman. The price received was $245 for yearlings and $295 for two year-olds. They will be delivered between May 10 and 20.—Vale Gazette.

Progress Union, No. 45, Order of Washington, installed the following officers for the ensuing term: Alice King, Pres.; A. L. Hunter, Vice Pres.; J. P. Robinson, Secy.; F. O. Jackson Treas.; Walter Calkins, Escort; Lucy Rusk, Assistant Escort; Chas. Newland Chaplain; Florence Houseman, Guard; W. O. White, Sentinel.

J. H. Seaward, of Cord, was a business caller at this office this morning. He informs us that the snow in the mountains is not as plentiful as usual this winter. Mr. Seaward also informs us that Ed. Crosby and his father-in-law, Mr. Armstrong, had their house burned down in Happy Valley a week ago last Friday morning. The fire was caused by moving some coals from the heating stove to the cook stove. The house and all its contents were totally destroyed, with the exception one trunk.—Vale Gazette.

Realizing that a fortune can be made in a very short time in the poultry business in Burns, the manager of this great religious weekly, in company with Tom Sagers, a thorough and well posted, as well as experienced man in that line, has made arrangements to launch out in that business early in the spring. We have several catalogues before us from which to order incubators and other necessary paraphernalia, leased a ten acre plat in the suburbs. Henceforth our people will be furnished with poultry without delay and at any season of the year can have fried chicken. Fresh eggs every morning—fresh enough to please the most fastidious—as we will arrange it so they can go to the telephone and hear the hens still cackling. The man that owes us on subscription is requested to help us start this great enterprise by either handing over a few checks or chickens.

Frank Metscham was a visitor to our town this week.

A fine lot of watches and Jewelry at the City Drug Store.

We are glad to state that Mrs. J. W. Sayer is improving.

Nice four room cottage for rent, situated on the hill. Good water. Inquire of Claude McGee.

J. H. Bunyard was in town Thursday for medicine for his daughter Lora, who has been suffering from a severe cold.

Sol Davidson, the new jeweler, is located at the H. W. Welcome & Co. drug store and is prepared to do watch, clock and jewelry work in a satisfactory manner.

Geo. L. Strong took his departure last Monday morning for Prineville where he expects to go to work in the mechanical department of the Journal.

The Burns Flour Milling Co. will close the grist mill for the winter on February 1st 1901. Parties having wheat to grind must have it at the mill before that date.

Jake Comegys, the tailor is again in Burns and is located in the Commercial House where he will be pleased to meet his old customers and friends.

If the city marshal would open his peepers a little earlier in the morning he might find a few head of loose stock to get in the pound.

Mrs. W. O. White has her carpet loom in running order, and is now ready to take work. She will be glad to give you prices and show samples. Remember she furnishes the warp for all carpets.

Don't forget the children's mask ball at Floral Hall next Saturday, January 19.

Mr. Bradfield informs us that several have had smallpox in Drewsey during the past few weeks, but all have recovered. It seems to be in a very tight form and some claim it was not smallpox.

Ed. Washburn, who was in Burns the first of the week, brings the word that the residence of James Anderson on Calamity, was destroyed by fire about two weeks ago. The house and contents were a total loss according to Mr. Washburn. We do not know whether it was insured or not.

Harney Valley Camp, No. 381, W. of W. installed the following officers last Tuesday night for the ensuing term: V. J. Hopkins, C. C.; W. O. White, A. L.; James Smith, Banker; J. P. Robinson, Clerk; Byron Terrill, Escort; Clyde Shaver, Watchman; G. E. Shaver, Sentinel. After the installation ceremonies a lunch was served by the Woodman Circle. A large crowd was in attendance and all enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. Ray Mallett, whose husband is a prominent business man of Portland, arrived in Vale Saturday with a petition to have the governor pardon her brother, Henry Long, who was sent from this county to the penitentiary last April for larceny. The prison authorities assert that he is suffering with consumption, and that he cannot live long if he remains there. The pardon is asked for on the condition that if granted he shall at once leave the state for California and never return here. The petition is receiving many signatures in Vale.—Vale Gazette.

WE ARE GOING TO TRY TO BREAK A RECORD and at the dullest time of the year. Here's the story briefly: "Well begun is half done." We believe in a good beginning for the year in the way of sales. Each year we try to push the mark a little higher for January sales and each year we have succeeded. It takes more planning than it did when our sales were small. The previous January record was not so hard to beat then, now it is—and takes such values as these to make big sales. Childrens Jackets former prices $2.50 now, $2.00. Misses Jackets former prices $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00, $5.50, now—$2.83, $3.33, $3.83, $4.33, $4.83. Ladies Jackets former prices $5.00, $6.00, $7.50, $8.50, $9.00, now—$4.00, $4.80, $6.00, $6.80, $7.23. Ladies Dress Skirts former prices $2.00, $2.50, $3.50, $4.50, $6.00, now—$1.50, $2.00, $2.80, $3.50, $4.00, $4.80. You won't make a mistake if you patronize our January sales.

N. Brown & Sons, The Leading Merchants, Burns, Oregon.

Call and see samples of our job printing.

L. C. Bradfield is over from Drewsey.

The man that don't "cut no ice" now will rue it next summer.

Mrs. F. E. Wilmarth, who has been quite sick for the past week, is much improved at this writing.

Fred Haines, the genial merchant and postmaster of Harney was down this week looking after the business of the Haines & Miller store here.

Mrs. W. C. Cecil fell on the kitchen floor at her home last Saturday, receiving painful injuries, though not serious. We understand she is much better at this time.

It is reported that petitions are being prepared asking that that portion of Wasco County between the Deschutes and John Day rivers lying south of the Sherman county line to be annexed to Sherman county.

Charley Parrish Jr. arrived here from Canyon yesterday afternoon and expects to leave for home tomorrow accompanied by his sister Mrs. Wio Gowan and brother Sam, who will visit for several days with relatives and friends at their old home.

The new fire engine was reported this side of Drewsey early in the week. It had been brought that far by sleigh and the snow having disappeared in that section it was found necessary to await the arrival of wheels before it could be brought in.

Bun Comegys, of Canyon City, brother to J. J. Comegys of this place, was in on a visit to the latter last Sunday. The gentleman is a painter and paper hanger and is at this time employed in beautifying Frank Metscham's home in Silvies Valley.

Ed Martin, who left here in the early fall to spend the winter in Southern Oregon, where he considered the mild climate would be beneficial to his health, is at Ashland and writes that there is a foot of snow there and are experiencing extreme cold weather. He expects to leave there and go to Portland or some point in the Willamette.

DIED—Grandma Shaw, mother of George and Albert Shaw and May Overton, died at her home yesterday at 3 o'clock a. m. aged 84 years. The lady had been suffering from grip and complication of ailments for about six weeks and her death was not unexpected though a sad blow to her children. The funeral will take place this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Baptist church. Rev. A. J. Irwin will conduct the services assisted by Rev. G. W. Black. The many friends of the bereaved relatives join us in extending sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

Dolly—That young minister seems rather guileless.

Madge—Yes, he appears to know more about the next world than he does of this.—Puck.

Creditor—So if you won't pay my bill I have my trouble in climbing five flights of stairs for nothing!

Kodaks

The absolute simplicity of the EASTMAN KODAKS has been the secret of their success, in fact so easy has photography become that any bright boy or girl of 10 years can successfully accomplish every step in picture taking, from "pressing the button" to "doing the rest."

We have a full line of these Kodaks and are always glad to explain them to anyone interested in this fascinating amusement.
