

Parties who have purchased scalps and expected to get the county court at its present term to act upon them the same as before the new law went into effect, are now in trouble.

The new law now in effect differs altogether from the old one and parties interested should bear it in mind.

For the benefit of our readers we give below those sections of the new law which prevents traffic and trade in scalps:

"Sec. 1. Any person who shall hereafter kill within the state of Oregon any wild cat, coyote, mountain lion, panther, cougar, gray wolf or timber wolf shall be entitled to a bounty of $2.00 for each such animal as hereafter provided.

"Sec. 2. Every person having in his possession, any scalp or scalps of the above named animals, may present the same to the county clerk of the county in which said animals have been killed and make an affidavit relating thereto, and subscribe and swear to the same before such officer, which said affidavit shall state the number of scalps presented; the kind of animals from which said scalps were taken; the time when said animals were killed in the county in which their scalps were presented, and the affiant killed the same, and that the same were not fostered or whelped in captivity prior to the killing thereof, and the said county clerk may, if he deems it advisable, require of such person such corroborative testimony, as to him seems proper concerning the truth set in such affidavit; provided, that in counties having no county clerk, said affidavit may be made before the clerk of the county court.

"Sec. 8. Every person having in his possession a certificate issued under the provisions of the act approved February 18, 1899, but not attested by the county clerk, shall present the same to the county clerk of the county in which the said certificate was issued and make the affidavit as provided by section 2, of this act, whereupon the county clerk of such county shall issue a warrant as prescribed by section 3 of this act.

Without the least reflection on the other two school directors elected last Monday, we can safely say that the election of Mrs. Foley was the best made in Burns for some time, so far as the school work is concerned.

The city election has passed, no one seriously hurt. The contest was somewhat spirited, but issues were mainly imaginary.

The smallpox situation in Drewsey is beginning to look serious and we should be careful to prevent the disease getting a start in Burns.

We are in receipt of the biennial report of the Secretary of State for the fiscal years ending December 31 1899 and 1900 respectively.

business for a score or more of years, and who have an established reputation for honesty and fair dealings. In a climate such as we have in Harney county it best if possible to secure your trees in the fall for several reasons, the principle reason is because the trees are dormant in the fall, and the shock of transportation is not so great as in the spring when the sap is flowing upward.

"Certificates canvassed as provided by section 8 of the act approved February 18, 1899, prior to the approval of this act shall be presented to the Secretary of State who shall issue a warrant as provided by the act approved February 18, 1899, upon the bounty fund"

The movement now on foot to re-organize the athletic club here should meet with encouragement from the young men of Burns.
