On last Sunday evening the saloons received notices through the post-office to close up on Sunday. The communications were signed "committee" and there has been much speculation as to what it means. There is either a vigilance committee organized here or a Mrs. Nation Club. Sunday closing has not been observed heretofore and how long the present system will continue we know not. Queen Quality Shoes $3 always. N. Brown & Sons Exclusive Agents. An important stock deal was consummated last Friday in Lakeview, when Henry R. Heryford, raiser of thorough bred Hereford cattle, sold to Frank O. Bunting all of his registered Hereford cattle including the famous bull Landor Alamo. The bunch consisted of 14 cows, 5 heifers and 10 calves, including Alamo, making 30 head in all. The price paid for the bunch was $2,500, and after the sale had made, Mr. Heryford concluded to take back one bull calf, for which he paid Mr. Bunting $150. The Bunting band of Herefords now number 101 head, the largest band of Herefords in the state of Oregon.—Examiner.
