BIG AUCTION SALE
Horses and Mules
MAY 20-21-22 1901.
All parties having stock which they want sold by us will please set them at once so that we may know the kind, number and how to class them. To get them all classified and entered upon our books will take two or three hours.
M'Clain & Biggs,
Burns, Oregon.

YOU CAN'T HELP BUT THINK Of Summer when you visit this store now.

Every department is crowded with the display of new summer merchandise. Our customers have already made deep dents in some of our popular lines, and we have commenced to send in duplicate orders. In the ready to wear apparel for women our stock never demonstrated our leadership so forcefully before. No such suits, skirts, silk waists, wash waists, gloves, silks and wash goods are shown by any other interior concern. No such summer footwear is offered at anywhere near the prices we quote. It's easy to understand, therefore, why the steps of the best dressers are turned toward this store. They know that we can supply what they want at a right price.

—A WORD ABOUT LININGS—Don't buy cheap linings. It doesn't pay. Cheap linings are really dear in the end. They don't keep a dress in shape, therefore it wears out quickly and never fits. Good linings insure not only a better fit but longer service, and they really don't cost much more than the ordinary kind elsewhere. Let us prove to you that we have the best lining stock in town.
