Wonder if the Declaration of Independence was read over in the Philippines the 4th.

The cow ordinance in Burns has become a "dead letter." Marshal Cardwell will not take up loose stock because the council will not, or has not, put up a pound or place to keep them.

The national cattle growers' association still continues to enlist the sympathy and support of the big daily papers of the West in their scheme of public land leasing.

THE TIMES-HERALD has taken the contract for printing 1500 copies of the County Expert's report and general exhibit, for the year ending July 31, 1901.

We find considerable complaint among taxpayers on account of the county court pushing the matter of collecting the delinquent taxes at this time.

Max Adeler's New Stories.

Twenty-five years ago, when "Elbow Room" Out of the Hurly-Burly" were the successes of the day, Max Adeler suddenly ceased writing.

Tales of old Turley, which will appear in early numbers of The Saturday Evening Post, are wonderfully droll stories of the quaint characters in an old-fashioned country town before the war.

Local politics, school committee fights, church squabbles and woman's clubs lend themselves admirably to Max Adeler's humorous touch, and form the basis of some of the cleverest stories that have been written for many a day.

John, Agnes and Earl Swock came in last Sunday from Corvallis, where they attended school last winter.

Miss Gay Delmas closed her school at Lawen last week and came to Burns Saturday.

The Celebration.

Burns has again acquitted herself with credit as an entertainer. The program of the celebration was carried out to the letter and was attended by people from all over Harney county.

As usual it was late when the fair grounds was reached. Floral hall was filled with people and there were almost as many more outside.

The afternoon sports begun at 2 o'clock p. m. with the bicycle race. There were six starters. Claud Hibbard was the first under the wire with Robt. Waters second.

THE BALL GAME.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds ever assembled at the fair grounds witnessed the baseball game in the afternoon between the married and single men.

IN MEMORY

Of our friend and brother, Dr. McPheeters. Not lost but gone before. So many years a faithful christian.

Brother, thou art gone to rest; Gone to the silent tomb; But Jesus summoned you away;

Brother, thou art gone to rest; Thy trials now are o'er; And thou art safe among the blest Upon the heavenly shore.

Brother, thou art gone to rest; Why should we weep for thee; For thou art now where oft on earth The spirit longed to be.

Brother, thou art gone to rest, And this shall be our prayer: That when our race on earth is run, Thy glory we shall share.

And thy message to thy loved ones, Could thou speak to them once more, Would be: Seek and serve the Sav-

Faithful to the end endure. Then when life's short journey's ended, And each burden is laid down; We shall meet beyond the river, And receive a starry crown.
