

Better slip with the foot than with the tongue.

A faultless character never gets the idea that it is faultless.

Every thing is created for the best and every one of us think we are it.

Some people are like wagons they rattle most when there is nothing in them.

An eastern girl recently made a jump of 13 feet and 7 inches, wonder how she would jump at a proposal.

There are greater crimes plotted in upholstered parlors than there are in squalid cellars or dusty garrets.

The hypocrisy of telling a man how to live after depriving him of the means of living is enough to plunge the nation in to socialism.

If there had been abundant crops in the Middle states of course McKinley caused it. But was he the cause of drought? We guess not.

C. D. Graham, of New York, who has made five successful leaps over Niagara Falls, very near lost his life in the last, and now says he is ready to quit.

Three hundred laborers strike and render 450,000 men idle. The labor strikes are getting as gigantic as the trust combinations. Where will it end?

Many suggest that Carnegie should give his money to build churches. But the last religious census shows that the seating capacity of the churches we now have is far beyond the membership.

There is no indication of a settlement of the steel strike. Both sides are determined and the struggle may be much longer than was anticipated when the struggle began. It costs a quarter of a million of dollars a day, a sum that would maintain a system of compulsory for a year or more.

King Edward has been cheated out of a very nice present. There is a diamond in London worth $200,000. Some subject of the king's had planned to purchase it as a coronation present, but the gem had been carried off by an American. Just what an American will do with a diamond of this size is difficult to understand unless he shall use it as a golf ball.

Did Not Leave Carrie.

Mr. David Nation, husband of the famous "smasher," who is living with his daughter at Iberia, O., has written the following statement:

"To the Public: Mrs. Nation has seen fit to leave our comfortable home in Medicine Lodge, Kan., and says she will never return to it to live. Therefore, there is nothing left for me to do but to live somewhere else, as I am too old and feeble to live alone. I have decided to spend the remaining few years allotted to me with my daughter, Mrs. William Riddle, in Iberia, O. She takes good care of me in all my afflictions. As I shall remain here, that much. (Signed) David Nation."

Mrs. Nation has turned up again, this time in St. Louis, Mo., where she appeared at a summer garden. She delivered two speeches, one in the dancing pavilion on the inappropriateness of round dances, and the other in the summer theater where she announced

That she had "given up smashing," but wished she could demolish every beer bottle in the world. After the performance she spied the "heavy man" of the stock company smoking a cigarette. She snatched it from his mouth. He pleaded that his wife allowed him to smoke, whereupon Carrie turned on the wife and told her she ought to teach her husband differently.

A Romance of the Wheat Pit.

The End of the Deal is the title of an unusually good business serial story which is to begin in an early number of The Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia. A famous transaction on the Chicago Board of Trade is the basis upon which the author, Mr. Will Payne, has founded this striking romance of the wheat pit. A charming love story runs through the stern and stirring plot.

Plot to Escape.

Warden Martin Lawrence of Frankfort, Ky., believes he has frustrated a plan of James Howard and Caleb Powers, convicted murderers of Governor William Gobel, to escape from the jail at Frankfort, where they are confined. The two prisoners have been transferred to a steel cage in the center of the building and a special guard placed around them. The warden says he learned of the proposed outbreak through one of the other prisoners, who claims to have been in the plot.

Wool Sold.

Not a single pound of wool is stored in the Huntington warehouses at the present time. During the week J. H. Neal and Jones & Williams, of Stein Mountain, disposed of their wool at 11 cents, and the O. C. Company received 9 cents for their clip. There has been a good demand for wool this year and the market has been strong and active. The prices received have been satisfactory to the growers, much better than some expected at the beginning of the season, and they are pleased that they could sell their wool as soon as it was offered and be able to return home to attend to other business.

World-Wide War Coming.

John W. Bookwalter, of Ohio, is thoroughly convinced that a crisis is eminent between the urban and rural populations of the world.

He sees in the rise in the price of grain the beginning of a struggle of the agricultural element against the concentration of capital in cities.

This movement will begin in America, he believes, where the economic conditions are inferior, in his opinion, to those of Germany and France, especially the latter, which he regards as the soundest country in the world, owing to the distribution of wealth between the agrarian and metropolitan classes.

Mr. Bookwalter sailed for the United States on the steamer Columbia yesterday after a 2,000-mile bicycle trip through Southern Europe, during which he traversed Italy almost from end to end, crossed the Apennines, went over the St. Gothard range and wheeled over the mountainous roads of Switzerland. He spent the greater part of his time living among and closely studying the peasantry.

A Great Newspaper.

The Sunday edition of the St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise. The organization of its news services is world-wide, complete in every department; in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper.

The magazine section is illustrated in daintily tinted colors and splendid half-tone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines. The fashions illustrated in natural colors are especially valuable to the ladies. The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in the Republic.

The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.
