Deputy United States Marshal Roberts yesterday arrived from Eastern Oregon, having in charge C. C. Davis, who, on examination before United States Commissioner Frank Moore, of Baker City, was held to answer for running an illicit distillery. He was committed to the county jail in default of bonds, but says he will be able to furnish the necessary bonds in a few days. Davis is about 65 years of age, a native of Southern Missouri and has been a resident of this state for about 30 years. He has a small farm and prune orchard on the Snake river, about 20 miles below Huntington, and is said to be worth some $20,000. He is charged with distilling prone brandy, or some sort of ardent spirits, which is considered good country-boy booze. It is said that he has been in this business for a number of years, and, being not a very intelligent man, does not realize that he is guilty of any moral turpitude in the matter. Davis has a Chinese wife and a son of twelve and a girl of nine years. Not long ago he had been worn out. He makes a decoction of prunes and sugar, and tones it up with alcohol to give it strength, and the stuff is in favor with persons who desire to indulge in a cheap drink. It is said that several such stills are operated in various parts of the state—Oregonian.

A Great Newspaper. The Sunday edition of the St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise. The organization of its news services is world-wide, complete in every department; in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper. The magazine section is illustrated in daintily tinted colors and splendid half-tone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines. The fashions illustrated in natural colors are especially valuable to the ladies. The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation. Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in the Republic. The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.
