J. H. Garrett, the Emigrant creek stockman, spent a few days in our city this week. Mr. Garrett will soon deliver his fall beef to Wm. Hanley.

The Richardson & James saw mill is again turning out lumber of all kinds. The mill is located in good timber with a good road and is ready to fill any size order sent in. They also make the best shingles. Call for prices.

A crowd of jolly serenaders gave us a pleasant surprise last night, wakening us from our first "nap" with the beautiful strains of "Because I Love You." We assure you friends it was appreciated and next time if you will give us a hint when to expect you we'll "set 'em up."

About every two weeks I will be in Burns with fruit: Pears, Apples, Plums and Peaches. I will certainly remember my old friends and customers to the extent that I will do the very best in quality of fruit and prices. To such I promise to deliver the best quality of winter fruit and desire that all my customers give me a chance before engaging winter fruit from others. ALVIN CAMPBELL.

The opening dance of the season was held at Floral hall last Wednesday evening and was a pleasant social affair. Forty couples participated.

The people of Burns and vicinity should not miss the opportunity of hearing the DeMoss Family. They are without a peer in their line. Next Saturday evening at Floral hall.

Tom Cleveland and wife, accompanied by Sam Cleveland, came over from Calamity Sunday. Tom has returned home and his wife will visit her sister Mrs. Joel Smith and other relatives in this vicinity.

You should hear the popular Male Quartet—called the "Way-ups" sing "In Absence" by Dudley Brickland and "Jolly Jonathan" by P. P. Ellis—the latter a side-splitting Humorous piece.

W. W. Brown, the Wagontire stockman, came in Thursday and spent yesterday attending to business here. Mr. Brown recently visited the East for the purpose of investigating the horse market. He reports that while it is not the best, very good prices prevail.

We are in receipt of a shipment of "The Boss" Roaster, Baker and Steamer which will be given away to our customers. They are a very useful, desirable and necessary article. When you have made cash purchases to the amount of $30 a roaster is given to you. Call and get a card filled out. Miller & Thompson.

We urge the people of Burns and those attending the fair to attend the Grand Concert given on Tuesday evening by Prof. Werschkul and his vocal class. They will certainly appreciate every number on the program, and will have an opportunity of listening to some excellent music by house talent. The fact that most of the proceeds remain here will also be an incentive to our people to attend. Our home talent entertainments have always been a success and much better than any from the outside. This will not be an exception.

Fine plating done by Jorgenson.

Parties owing me are hereby given notice that no one is authorized to make collections, but all accounts must be paid to me. JAMES EVANS.

A. P. Goss, of the First Bank of Sumpter, accompanied by his brother, Judge J. D. Goss, arrived here the first of the week en route to Harney lake for a week or ten days duck hunt. They spent a short time in this city, leaving Wednesday for the lake. Mr. Goss was very favorably impressed with this section and said he was sorry he had visited us before. He had contemplated starting a bank at this place at no distant date, but finding Mr. Huriburt on the ground, he of course will not do so now.

DIED—Last Monday evening at the home of his parents LeRoy Cecil Sanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sanford, aged 8 months and 12 days. The little fellow had been afflicted with erysipelas for some time which caused his death. The funeral was from the residence at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Rev. A. J. Irwin preaching the sermon. The little form was buried in the Burns cemetery. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their affliction.

D. S. Graves was brought before Justice Jameson this week on a warrant sworn out by Adam George charging him with threatening to kill the latter. After hearing the evidence Mr. Graves was discharged. Justice Jameson considering the evidence not sufficient to justify holding the defendant to appear at circuit court. If you have never heard "Pro Phundo Basso," a Humorous quartet, for mixed voices, you should hear it on Tuesday night Oct 1st. It alone will be worth the price of admission.

Inadvertently we failed to mention in our last issue the birth of a nine lb daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Casper Hays on Sept. 13. The mother and child are doing well under the care of Mrs. Marshall, as nurse.

The Grand Concert next Tuesday evening will be an attraction that should not be missed. There is not a "prosy" number on the program, all the selections being lively and of the kind that the people will appreciate. Several character selections on the list are very laughable.

Chickens and eggs wanted at the Commercial.

Those Sunday dinners at Mrs. I. S. Geer's are becoming more popular. Meal tickets can be had upon application—21 meals for $5.

John Saxton, who has been absent since July, visiting Baker City, Ontario, and other points returned last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sanford desire to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of their little son. They shall ever be remembered.

Sample rooms at the Commercial Hotel.

C. H. Voegtly went over to Canyon Tuesday to meet his little son, Nick, who was returning home from a visit to relatives in Pittsburg. They returned Wednesday. Little Nick, will make his home here as his health is not good in the East.

Commercial Hotel is headquarters for Commercial traveling men.

While Col Wood is here a number of those who have been in litigation with the W. V. & C. M. W. R. Co. have compromised with the company. We did not learn the terms were all very liberal. This is a good move for all parties concerned, perhaps, as in many cases the law suits are of considerable more expense.

O. D. Rusk and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Maloy, Mrs. Rusk's sister and husband, are visiting with friends in our city. Mr. and Mrs. Maloy have but recently arrived here from California and expect to locate in our county.

We call your attention to the new ad of the Burns Hotel in this issue. F. L. Andrews now has charge of this popular hostelry and having had experience in the business will make it even more popular. The building has been thoroughly renovated and patrons will find everything neat.

J. H. Neal came in from his ditch camp Thursday and will return again in a day or two. Some wretch destroyed a large amount of provisions, tools, etc. at his camp last month. It was pure maliciousness as nothing was stolen, but tools were broken up, flour sacks etc. cut open and scattered about and canned goods opened and left standing. Mr. Neal offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the parties. See notice everywhere.

$500 Reward.

I will pay Five Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who wrecked my camp near Burnt flat about the 15th of August last. The following articles, among others, were maliciously destroyed: Solar compass, eye level, cook stove, blacksmith shop, flour, grain canned goods, tools and supplies of various kinds. Burns, Oregon, Sept. 27th. J. H. NEAL.

We are now ready to fill your orders for FALL and WINTER SUPPLIES.

OUR GUARANTEE:

That you will receive honest value in every article you buy, and that we will UNDERSELL any legitimate competitor from 2 to 5 per cent, and to CHEERFULLY REFUND your money should you be dissatisfied with any article we sell you.

This will convince you we merit not part of your trade, but all of it.
