Notice change in C. H. Leonard's card in this issue. Mr. Leonard now has his office in the Times-Herald building.

Queen Quality Shoes for women. The factory can't fill our orders. Our shoe business is our hobby.—N Brown & Sons.

No one should kick at the climate. If we had a railroad we couldn't keep out thousands of people who would take up their residence with us.

Ira Venator is in our city at present under the care of physicians on account of a sore finger caused by a horse bite. The wound was poisoned from the teeth of the animal.

Of course you know we sell Royal Worcester Corsets. We sell a great many. They are the leading corset in the large cities.—N Brown & Sons, Agents.

John Budelman, of the firm of Schwartz and Budelman, expects to leave next Tuesday for Portland where he will visit for an indefinite length of time. While absent Mr. Budelman will select much of the spring goods for the firm. His many friends hope he will enjoy the vacation he so much deserves.

We are in receipt of a shipment of "The Boss" Roaster, Baker and Steamer which will be given away to our customers. They are a very useful, desirable and necessary article. When you have made cash purchases to the amount of $20 a roaster is given to you. Call and get a card filled out. Miller & Thompson.

Deputy Sheriff J. C. Wooley, of Granite, passed through town Thursday, enroute to Baker, where he turned over to Sheriff F. W. Durbin, of Marion county, J. M. McCowan, a young man wanted in that county on a charge of seduction under promise of marriage. He has been working at the Red Boy for the past five or six months.—Sun-Printer Reporter.

J. W. Shown, is down from Harney.

The Burns Furniture Co received a lot of new goods this week.

Newell Hall has been circulating among his friends in Burns this week.

J. W. Buchanan and family spent a few days at their ranch this week.

J. T. Bailey, of John Day valley, a former resident of this county, is over on a visit.

Stocktaking reduction. Goods reduced in all lines. Remnants counter. N. Brown & Sons.

Manager Kellogg, of the O-B stage line, is looking after business matters at this end of the line.

C. H. Voegtly has just received a car load of plows and harrows of all sizes, and has put a price on them that will make them go.

Rev. Father McDevitt will accompany John Budelman to Portland. They will go by private conveyance to Shaniko.

Our stock and farm machinery was never more complete. Seeders, plows, cultivators, drills, anything you want.—Geer & Cummins.

County court has been in session since Thursday morning. The principal business is the inspection of reports of the various county officers.

W. B. Johnson was over from Silver creek this week spending a few days with his family. Mr. Johnson is still having trouble with his eyes.

John Deere plows are the best plows made. You can get gongs, sulkies, walking plows, or any kind of plow at C. H. Voegtly's, and get them at reduced prices. Call and be convinced.

Fred DeLentmen, of Suplee, Crook county, was shaking hands with his many friends in this city this week. He was over having some dental work done.

All persons are hereby notified not to remove any building rock from my land.

Burns, Oregon, Nov. 30, 1901.
LEON M. BROWN.

Mrs Geo. Hagney, who has been suffering from tonsillitis, is improving and expects to leave for her Canyon City home about next Wednesday.

The registration books will be opened at the clerk's office next Monday. Voters should remember that they must register before election time.

About 60 couples attended the New Year dance at Floral hall Wednesday night. All report a fine time, as the floor was not so crowded as at big dances.

The Richardson & James saw mill is again turning out lumber of all kinds. The mill is located in good timber with a good road and is ready to fill any size order sent in. They also make the best shingles. Call for prices.

MARRIED—Last Sunday morning, Dec. 29 at the Presbyterian manse, Mr. W. P. Cochran and Miss Grace Catterson, Rev. A. J. Irwin officiating. Both the contracting parties are residents of the Lawen neighborhood the bride being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Catterson. Mr. Cochran has been a resident of that section for several years. We join their many friends in wishing them a happy life.

From the report made to the county court this week by the sheriff there is practically no delinquent taxes in Harney county. The 1900 assessment roll, as charged by the county clerk amounts to $76,395.90. Sheriff's assessments $954.71, making a total of $77,350.61. Of this amount $76,999.21 has been collected leaving delinquent taxes to the amount of $351.34. This is a good showing for the sheriff's office.

MARRIED—Last Thursday January 2, at Harney City, Mr. T. B. James and Mrs. J. K. Tudor. The marriage came as a surprise to their friends on account of the extreme youthfulness of the contracting parties and even if the parents did not object there were a number of bachelors who did.—J. W. Shown among them. Both the parties are well and favorably known in this county and have resided in Harney vicinity for a number of years. Mr. James was at one time county commissioner and has been prominent in politics here since the early '80s. They are very estimable people for whom only the best words are spoken. We sincerely hope their life will be free from care and that they may live in happiness to a ripe old age.

L. F. Andrews, the genial host of the Burns, now has a half interest in the bar in connection. Mr. Andrews expects to put in a complete new out fit of fixtures including a handsome bar next spring.

R. S. Settlemire an employe of the P. L. S. Co., on the Island ranch, received a $300 saddle this week from the Dalles, where it was made. It is certainly a "daisy" and has been admired by all who saw it.

W. J. Coleman returned Monday from monument where he had been as referee taking testimony in the case of Neal vs Roach. He took his departure Wednesday for Baker City accompanied by his wife—Canyon Eagle.

The beautiful spring weather we are now enjoying makes one believe that he is not in Eastern Oregon, but in the sunny south. We are having all the winter we need provided a good supply of snow falls by the middle of March. It is ideal for the stock.

The entertainment given by the Burns Athletic Association last Saturday evening was a very creditable exhibition and all who attended were well pleased. The boys contemplate another exhibition in the near future.

A scarf pin in the shape of a wish bone with an emerald set was picked up in the Masonic hall after the installation exercises last night. The owner may have it by calling on F. S. Rieder.

This office is in receipt of a check for three hundred and sixty-five dollars, signed by C. H. Voegtly, the hardware dealer. This check is drawn on the National Bank of Prosperity and arrived at our desk January 1, 1902. Thanks old boy, same to you.

A. A. Cowing, ex-receiver of the local land office, has been in for several days past helping receiver Newell on his quarterly report. This was made necessary on account of the rush of business during the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parker are down from their Silvies River home today. These two old pioneers are building a large new house and furnishing it in modern style, where they will spend their reclining years in comfort. All their children live in this country and each year a re-union is held at the home of the parents.

Quite a number of our citizens took in the grand ball at Harney on New Year's night and all report a fine time. Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Anderson, Geo. Shelley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodman, Misses Len Robinson and Myrtle Jameson, John Darsey's orchestra furnished the music, having the same pieces as played for the Christmas dance here.

WATCH PARTY.

Upon invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Schwartz several of their friends met at their lovely home on the evening of Dec. 31 to watch the old year out and the new one in. It was indeed a jolly crowd and the host and hostess made all present feel welcome and perfectly at ease. The evening was spent in playing whist, hellbender, music, charades etc. Refreshments were served and at 1 o'clock the guests reluctantly retired to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz a happy and prosperous New Year. These present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Trisch, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Levens, Mr. and Mrs. John Gemberling, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mothershead, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Byrd, Misses Fannie Donegan, Clara Swain, Messrs. Frank Welcome, Willie McKinney and John Budelman.

Peter Clemens Wins Machine.

The handsome sewing machine given away by N. Brown & Sons on January 1st was won by Peter Clemens. During the first week of December last, the firm inaugurated a new system to stimulate their cash sales and gave a chance or number to every cash purchaser, which entitled them to a draw. All numbers were placed in a box and one drawn out on January 1. The one holding the corresponding number was the lucky individual to carry off the prize. The manager of this great religious weekly spent every nickel he could scrape, hoping to win the prize but all in vain. He bought several spools of thread—one at a time—besides two or three blocks of matches and a can of fruit. He is too good looking to be lucky and has given up. There's nothing in it. No premium for cash purchases will tempt him again.

Religious Services.

Christian Science services at H. L. Briscoe's residence every Sunday 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Meeting also held each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend. Subject for tomorrow: "God"

Rev. A. J. Irwin will preach at Harney the 2nd Sunday of each month at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school every sabbath at 2 p. m.

There will be preaching services at the Poison Creek school house every 4th Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. A. J. Irwin, pastor.

At the Presbyterian church Burns, Rev. A. J. Irwin pastor Devine services the third and fourth Sundays of each month at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. every Sabbath morning.

Preaching services at the Baptist church every 1st and 2nd Sundays, morning and evening. Sunday school every Sunday at 11 a. m. prayer meeting every Thursday evening.

Commissioner Venator is in attending to court matters.

Narrows Happenings.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Baker, of the Warm Springs, were visitors this week.

Mr. Randolph Gibson and Miss Zoe Belfour, of Buck creek, were at the dance the 24th.

Mr. V. Cawfield and wife, of Happy valley, were here this week visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Heb. Miller, of Surprise valley, is shaking hands with his many friends here this week. Heb says he doesn't like the valley as well as the good old town of the Narrows.

Ike Constance, of Silver creek, made the Narrows a visit this week.

Wm. Dunne has quite a force of men working on his well. Billy is going to put in a horse power pump that will raise 4000 gallons of water per hour.

Eddie Anderson made a business trip to Burns this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalla Turner, of Happy valley, were visitors this week.

The Christmas tree and dance here the 24th was a grand success. There were 60 numbers sold. The Narrows is coming to the front.

Mr. Marion Horton and wife, of Diamond, were here at the hop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harper went to Burns to spend their Christmas.

Mr. Taylor Simmons returned home on last Monday's stage from Burns where he has been under the care of Dr. Volp for some time.

The school entertainment of the 24th, under the management of Miss Julia Greeley, was a grand success.

Wm. Carbal was shaking hands with his many friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bardwell, of the Warm Springs, were here at the dance. Bill is just as young as he used to be.

Mr. Frank Cummins, of Diamond, made the Narrows a business trip this week. We'll not tell what kind of business it was, but we are saying our tin cans.

Henderson Elliott, of Sage Hen has moved back here for the winter to feed his stock.

Mrs. D. H. Smyth and family, of Happy valley, were here at the Christmas tree and dance.

Bert Bailey and Lee Thornberg, of the OO ranch, were here for the ball.

Earl Elliott and wife are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. Elliott.

Kodaks

The absolute simplicity of the EASTMAN KODAKS has been the secret of their success, in fact so easy has photography become that any bright boy or girl of 10 years can successfully accomplish every step in picture taking, from "pressing the button" to "doing the rest."

We have a full line of these Kodaks and are always glad to explain them to anyone interested in this fascinating amusement.
