On last Sunday morning a surprise party awaited the O-B stage driver in the way of a runaway. The team started from the post-office and chased around considerably, dragging the driver for some distance bruising him up but did no serious damage. No one would think that a stage team on these routes would run, but they actually surprised themselves.

"Hick'ry Farm" will be put on the boards by local talent some time the latter part of this month. Hon C. W. Parrish will manage the youngsters and has a good cast. The proceeds from this entertainment will be given toward increasing the library of the public schools of this place. We hope to see a full house to greet those who are helping along such a worthy cause.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the program for the musical and literary concert of Messrs. Holmes & Phelps. These gentlemen come to us highly recommended from southern Oregon and California, as musicians and elocutionists. Press clippings from Lakeview, Cedarville, and Alturas speak in glowing terms of their accomplishments. They will be assisted by local talent. Remember the date January 16, at Floral hall.

T. A. Morrison, the old-time Tom, who still owns a large slice of the Morrison's addition, come in from Canyon Tuesday. He was over to attend to some real estate matters and returned again to Canyon Wednesday. We understand Tom is going to British Columbia for an indefinite length of time, may good luck be with him is the wish of his many friends in this section.

Attend the literary and musical concert next Thursday evening January 16 at Floral Hall.

OBITUARY.

The lifeless form of Mrs Jennie Carlson was laid to rest on Saturday Jan. 4, 1902. The funeral services were conducted by friends, after which the remains were borne to the Wild Horse cemetery followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

The deceased was born in Sweden Oct. 7, 1880, and after spending 19 years of her life in Sweden she crossed the Atlantic ocean and came to Oregon. In the zenith of womanhood she fell a victim to consumption which lingered for over a year and, although, all that kind hands and loving hearts could do was done it was of no avail.

She died Friday, January 2, 1902 her age was 21 years, 2 months and 27 days. She was married in Burns to J. E. Carlson on Sept. 11, 1900.

Many hearts in the old country as well as in Oregon will mourn her death.

The bereaved family has the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends in their affliction.

WALTER GRAY.
