All persons are hereby notified not to remove any building rock from my land.
Burns, Oregon, Nov. 20, 1901.
L. FOX M. BROWN.

The Rebekah lodge of this place initiated three candidates last Wednesday evening. After the work was completed a nice lunch was spread.

The Burns Furniture Co. has a new lot of art squares, rugs, carpet, dining chairs, rockers, extension and center tables in stock. "Dady" is anxious to show them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnett came in from Orane creek Tuesday returning Thursday. They were accompanied home by the lady who is now in this section buying artillery horses.

John Deere plows are the best plows made. You can get gongs, sickles, walking plows, or any kind of plow at C. H. Voegtly's, and get them at reduced prices. Call and be convinced.

Hon. C. H. Parrish will leave next Wednesday for Salem where he goes to argue a case before the supreme court. On account of his having to leave "Hick'ry Farm" will not be produced until Feb. 7.

The jail breakers, Smith and Jordan, are still at large. The telephone wire was cut near Lawen, as we surmised in our last issue. It is thought they have gone to the Owyhee and it will perhaps be sometime before they are caught. There is no doubt of their being helped from the outside by being supplied with horses which were possibly left near town by some friends.

Mrs. Emil Baker—who was reported as dangerously ill in our last issue, is improving.

We have sulky plows, walking plows, gang plows at railroad prices. Full stock.—Geer & Cummins.

Tony Wender, the Canyon City brewer, accompanied by Phil Metchan Jr., cashier of the Grant County Bank, came in from that place last Saturday. Mr. Wender started on his return trip Sunday and Mr. Metchan remained here until Wednesday, returning on the stage.

MARRIAGE—At the home of T. V. B. Embree and wife in Dallas, Sunday evening, January 5, their daughter Miss Alice Irene, was united in marriage with Mr. Walter Sellers, son of David Sellers and wife near that city. Rev. L. S. Smith of the Southern Methodist church officiating. They will make Dallas their home. The bride was at one time a resident of this county.

James Adams, who came in from the Owyhee today, states that some Idaho officers in that section captured Jordan and Smith the other day. They were looking for an escaped convict from the Idaho penitentiary and thought one of them was their man. After discovering their mistake they were allowed to go as the officers did not know they were wanted.

Business College Notes.

The college today closed its first term of three months. Next Monday, January 20, it begins its second term of three months. The college opened Nov. 4, with rooms comparatively empty—today scarcely a seat is vacant, and every student just completing the first three months course is re-enlisted for the second term, and all express themselves as the happiest group of students that ever were associated in school work.

Merchant G. L. Hembree of Silver Creek, commenced work with us last Monday.

One by one our evening students are enrolling in the day school, and at present the college rooms present during school hours, a picture of industry and happiness.

Death of Eva Wright-Dunton.

Drewsey, Jan. 13.—Ed. Times-Herald:—Mrs. Eva Wright-Dunton, wife of Bert Dunton, one of our enterprising farmers, died Jan. 9, at 10 o'clock a. m. She was sick only a few days.

The funeral took place at the Drewsey grave yard on Jan. 10, and was largely attended. Minerva Reb. Lodge, No. 112, I. O. O. F., Drewsey lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F., and the public school all turned out. The funeral services were conducted by Mrs. M. E. Miller of the first Baptist church of Drewsey.

Eva Wright was born in South Dakota, Oct. 12, 1878, moved to Oregon with her parents in her youth and was raised and educated near Drewsey. Was married to Bert Dunton Christmas Day, 1899. She leaves a loving husband, two sons—one only a few days old—father, mother, two brothers, Jacob and John of Drewsey, and a married sister in Montana. W. D. B.
