C. S. Biggs returned from Canyon City today. Mr. Biggs informs us he has bought an interest in the general merchandise store of Hazeltine & Co. of that place and will move to Canyon immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. John Darsey arrived in Prineville 24 hours after the arrival of his father to whose bedside he was so hastily summoned. Robert Darsey, the deceased was well known throughout Eastern Oregon and his friends are grieved to know of his demise.

In this issue we publish the announcement of Frank S. Rieder as candidate for county clerk, subject to the pleasure of the democratic county convention. Mr. Rieder is our present efficient deputy county clerk, which office he has held for the past four years. Frank, as he is familiarly known, and hailed by his legion of friends, needs no introduction to the voters of this county. He is competent, every respect and would if elected, make an excellent official. So far he has no opposition for the position and will perhaps be the unanimous choice of his party. He is very popular and would make a good clerk.

John Hembree and wife came in from Narrows to-day.

W. B. Johnson is over from Silves creek on land business.

O. J. Darst was down from the Trout creek mines a few days this week.

We are in receipt of a shipment of "The Boss" Roaster, Baker and Steamer which will be given away to our customers. They are a very useful, desirable and necessary article. The fancy ball to be given on the 14th inst., is a new departure in that line for this section. Manager Smith informs us that while some will no doubt appear in evening costume and rich jewels, it will not be amiss for the young ladies to be dressed in neat calico or the boys to come in overalls. At any rate it will be a change and a little variety will dispell the monotony of ordinary dances. The dancing public should attend.

"Hickory Farm," was produced at Floral Hall last evening to one of the largest houses ever seen in Burns. Inclemency of the weather and bad roads prevented many from attending. The production was well received and those taking part are receiving the congratulations of all who attended. The only drawback to the affair was the lateness of the hour before the curtain was raised—a delay that could not be prevented. The library fund will be increased about $50.
