Albert Oakerman, of Silver creek, was among the guests at the dance
last night.

Walter Cross was a business visitor from Trout creek last Monday and Tuesday.

The pleasant sunshine for the past few days is doing wonders in the way of road building.

Jack Drewett, of Drewsey, was shaking hands with his many friends in Burns a few days this week.

Mrs. Frank Dibble is still confined to her room at the home of her mother Mrs. W. B. Johnson, in this city.

E. L. Scott, who has been an employee at the P-Ranch for for the past 9 years, is visiting a few days in Burns.

A. S. Vanderpool, administrator of the S. B. Craig estate, made his final settlement in probate court last Monday.

Geo. Buchanan, of the Rock creek station, was here the first of the week, the guest of Assessor Buchanan and family.

Friday evening, March 14, has been selected as the date for the Operatic Contata "Phyllis, the Farmer's daughter."

Wm. Bullington have been spending the past week in Burns, the guests of relatives and friends.

The entertainment given by the students of the Citizens Business College last Tuesday was well attended and the program was well appreciated by all.

Ducks and geese have begun to come in and local sports are cleaning up their old standbys. The advance guard went out today to give the birds a warm welcome.

Mrs. Emil Baker has been moved to the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
John Sevedge in Burns in order to be near medical aid. The lady is reported improving at this time.

The many friends of John Robinson are glad to find he is again able to be out and at his place of business again after being laid up for several weeks with rheumatism.

Clarence Woldenberg had the misfortune to fall and break one bone of his left arm just above the wrist last Saturday evening. The fracture is not giving him much pain, however.

M. Brown, who has been wintering his stock at the Finmore place, was a caller at this office today. Mr. Brown is looking for a small ranch to his liking and will cast his lot with us.

The Windsor, one of the most elegant and attractive bar rooms in Eastern Oregon, has the best line of cigars in Burns. Gentlemen mixologists and courteous treatment accorded all customers.

the art of tatting, I wish to state that I will give lessons at 50 cents a lesson. Also give lessons in button-hole making. Will go to homes.
Please write. IONE WHITING.

Carrol Cecil came in on last Thursday's stage returning from a trip to California. He also spent some time with his family in Corvallis while absent. After a short rest in Burns Carrol proceeded to his Silver creek ranches.

W. W. Brown the Wagontire stock man, was a business visitor to our city the first of the week.
Mr. Brown thinks he can secure better prices for his horses than are offered here and will start with a bunch to the Willamette in the near future.

The announcement of J. M. Dalton, as a candidate for treasurer, subject to the action of the democratic county convention, appears in this issue. Mr. Dalton is one of our substantial business men and has a large circle of friends who would be pleased to see him honored with the nomination. Mr. Dalton would certainly make a good race.

A. K. Richardson and George

James are down from the saw mill.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Byron Terrell Wednesday, Feb. 19 a baby girl.

Lou Marshall was circulating among his friends the first of the week.

M. H. Brenton has retired from the Windsor Bar in which he was interested with Lee Caldwell.

The Christian Scientists of this place have leased the old Caldwell hall and are remodeling it to use as a church.

John Gilcrest arrived yesterday from Oakland and left this morning for Miller & Lux's northern ranches.—Winnemucca Silver State

If you desire to re-seed your meadow see Schwartz & Budelman at once. They have a good supply of Bromes, Red Top and Alfalfa seed.

John E. Loggan, of Harney, a prominent candidate for assessor on the republican ticket, was circulating among his friends in Burns this week.

Walter and Ira Clark and Oscar Swain were up from Lawen last night to take in the ball. Walter Clark is suffering from a broken collar bone.

C. E. Kenyon this week purchased from C. E. McPheeters two lots in the block north of the school house on which he expects to build a new residence soon. Chas. is getting into a good neighborhood—we live in the same block.

"Uncle" Geo. Duncan was a pleasant caller at this office Tuesday.
He was on his way home to Silver Lake after a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in this county.

John Bilzer left Wednesday for his new home in Washington where he has purchased a half interest in a hardware establishment. He has the best wishes of his many friends here.

C. H. Voegtly, of the hardware firm of Voegtly & Kenyon, left last Monday for Portland where he goes to make the selection of their spring shipment of hardware and implements.

J. P. Cavander of south Burns has been seriously ill for the past week suffering from brain fever.
For a while his brain was much affected, but we are glad to learn he is convalescent and his speedy recovery is assured.

E. Brown, proprietor of the Burns Cash Grocery, received a message last Monday that his wife had died in San Francisco Sunday night.
The lady had been in poor health for several years. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of his many friends in this place.

John Gemberling will soon begin the remodeling of the Cheatham building, which he recently bought putting it in shape for his jewelry store and shop. He will put in a glass front and otherwise change the building. Mr. G. expects to be able to move into his new quarters in about one month.

W. E. Huston announces himself in this issue as a candidate for the office of assessor, subject to the pleasure of the republican county convention. Mr. Huston is well qualified for the position to which he aspires and his republican friends feel that he should be the nominee.

The many friends of H. C. Levens have induced him to allow his name to be used in connection with the county judgeship, subject to the action of the republican county convention. Mr. Levens announces his candidacy in this issue. He is one of the most popular men in this county and has every qualification to fill the important office to which he aspires. Should he be honored by his party with the nomination he will certainly be a hard man to defeat.

We call attention to the announcement of Geo. D. Hagey as a candidate for county judge, on the democratic ticket, in this issue. Mr.
Hagey served the taxpayers of this county for four years as county commissioner and is well acquainted with the duties of the office of county judge. During his term of office Mr. Hagey conducted the affairs of the county, so far as the duties of his office were concerned, in a very satisfactory manner. Should the democrats select him as their candidate he will make a good run as he is very popular among his acquaintances.
