J. G. Holloway and two sons E.
L. and C. F., of Duplo, were guests at the Cottage for a few days this week. Although they have been residents of this county for several years they do not visit the county seat very often, it being about 125 miles from their home. Mr. Holloway paid this office a pleasant call while in the city. They left for home Thursday morning.

We are having a spell of March

The meetings of the central committees of both parties today formally starts the political campaign in this county. It should also be the signal for spring, as coats will come off and things will be warm in a way, at least.

We visited the cabinet shop of G. W. Clevenger this morning and examined some of his neat work in the line of kitchen tables, cupboards and cabinets. Mr. Clevenger is certainly a first class workman and does some excellent work in his line.

The announcement of Tom Allen as a candidate for sheriff on the republican ticket, appears in this issue. Mr. Allen was the nominee of his party for that office two years ago and made a very creditable run. He is a very popular man among his acquaintances and should his party again nominate him, will be a hard man to defeat.

The management of "Captain Racket" has arranged with Man-positions can be picked out. Be sure to have chairs tagged with your name and there will be no confusion and experienced ushers

James Sherman, the horse buyer, has been called in by his employers on account of this section being quarantined. It seems that the horses recently sent through here from Lake county were diseased and for that reason horses from this section cannot be shipped. Horsemen state that it is nothing but mud fever, the horses having been driven a long distance through mud that had a crust frozen on top, causing the hair on their legs to wear off. Mr. Sherman had a number of horses contracted which he was unable to take when brought to Burns for delivery. He arranged matters satisfactorily with the owners however, and as soon as the quarantine is raised, will likely return to this field where he has many friends among the horse men who appreciate a man who will deal honestly with them.

republican party of this county to nominate him for the office of

RESOLUTIONS.

Hall of Minerva Rebekah Lodge, No. 112, I. O. O. F.
Drewsey, Feb. 15, 1902.
We our committee appointed to draft resolutions of condolence on the death of Sister Emma Davis, beg leave to report as follows: Whereas, The angel of death has invaded the portals of our Lodge, and in its visitation a loved one has been taken from the home circle. While we fail to understand we bow our heads in sorrow to the will of Him who doeth all things well. Therefore be it Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing husband and relatives in this their hour of deepest grief, and may the Father in loving kindness remember those who mourn, and with tender mercy lift the clouds of sorrow from their hearts.

Resolved, That the charter be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge; that a copy be sent to Atwood Lodge, Kansas, and the Pacific Odd Fellow for publication.
Fraternally submitted.
ROSE BAKER,
BEATRICE STANDLEE,
NETTIE JOHNSON,
Committee.

IN MEMORIAM.

Sister, thou wast mild and lovely Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening When in floats among the trees.
Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in thy grave so low; Thou no more shalt join our number Thou no more our songs shalt [know].
Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life have flown,
And in Heaven we hope to greet thee Where no farewell tears are known.
ROSE BAKER.

She passed away like morning dew.
Before the sun was high;
So brief her time she scarcely knew
The meaning of a sigh.
As 'round the rose its soft perfume, Sweet love around her floated;
Admired she grew—while mortal [doom]
Crept on unfeared, undaunted.
Love was her guardian angel here,
But love to death resigned her.
Though love was kind, why should [we fear]
But holy death is kinder.
