The blustry weather still continues in this section.

Taylor Simmons and John Heembree were up from Narrows a few days this week.

Messrs Williams & FitzGerald have moved their law office into the Voegly building.

J. W. Kelso, the jolly old rancher of Saddle Butte, came up yesterday accompanied by James Oard Manager Smith of Floral hall, desires to inform the public that he will give a Saint Patrick ball on Friday March 21st.

Hon. C. W. Parrish arrived home last Saturday evening after an absence of several weeks in Portland, Salem and other points.

Alfalfa, Red Top and Bromus grass seed in large quantities in stock at Schwartz & Budelman's. Put in your order at once.

Several interesting local items and communications were crowded out of this issue to make room for matter that could not be delayed. They will appear next week.

"Captain Racket," the comedy which was produced last night by local talent, was well patronized and seemed to be appreciated and enjoyed. We have not learned the total receipts.

W. J. Coleman and wife arrived home from Malheur county on the delayed stage Wednesday morning. Mr. Coleman has been taking testimony in a number of important cases in Malheur county.

Register Wm. Farre and wife arrived here Thursday evening from Canyon and we understand Mr Farre will take charge of his office Monday. Tony Wendler, the Canyon brewer, came over with them. He has returned home.

Our old friend J.H. Garrett was down his Emigrant Creek home this week, paying taxes and looking after other business affairs. John informs us he has turned his stock out on the range where is all kinds of green grass and flowers.

CH Voegtly, Ches Smith and Con Wyatt arrived home from Portland this afternoon on the Canyon stage. The former had been to the metropolis ordering hardware and the two latter have spent the winter there attending school.

Those desiring chairs taken to the hall next Friday evening for the cantata "Phyllis, the Farmer's Daughter," should buy their tickets early in the week at either of the drug stores and leave orders. The team will be after them between 2 and 4 o'clock. No chairs taken after 4 o'clock.

We are sorry to say that a good article giving Dr. Duchesne, the hypnotist(?) was crowded out of this issue. The gentleman deserved a good write up and we think the article referred to would have done him justice. The Dr. (?) ran up against a lot of "Missourians" here and he failed to "show us." We would warn our neighbor towns against this grafter and advise the people to keep their 50 cents unless they want to be suckers.

GEORGE SIMPSON WAS MURDERED.

Shot Twice and Almost Instantly Killed by Pat Moore Last Friday.

Word reached here last Sunday evening of the killing of Geo. Simpson, foreman of the Devine ranch at Alvord, on Friday evening, Feb. 28, by Pat Moore, and that the murderer had escaped.

The particulars of the tragedy were given us by W. E. Alberson, who arrived here Tuesday. Pat Moore had been an employe on the ranch since last September. Mr. Alberson stopped at the ranch on his way to Burns and got a sack of grain and at that time there was no evidence of any trouble, the two men being then in the vaquero house talking. Moore is said to have been under the influence of liquor. Mr. Alberson drove on to Mann lake where R. F. Claypool arrived soon after and told of the killing. He immediately returned to the ranch with Mr. Claypool and made an examination of the body. Three shots were fired, the first one taking effect in the right shoulder, knocking him down and the second below the left nipple ranging up. The murdered man's wife, two little sons, Mrs. Devine and Wm. Ward were witnesses to the tragedy, but none knew of any reason for the crime. Moore had gone into the house and told the ladies he was going to Mr. Claypool's and if Simpson came down there he would have to be carried away. He had then stepped out the back door just as Simpson, accompanied by his two little sons, came out of vaquero house. Moore immediately opened fire at a distance of about 30 steps. He then stepped back into the house and demanded his wages all in currency. Mrs. Devine handed him the money and asked if she had any more. Being answered in the negative he turned to leave when Mrs. Devine said, "You have killed George, why did you do it?" Moore replied "yes, I've killed him and I'm d—m glad of it." He then stepped out and warned those present not to follow him. Going to the barn he saddled up a horse and left. Simpson lived but a few minutes and his only words were to his wife who ran to him when he fell. "I'm shot thro' the heart, why did he do it?" And then he said, "Hold my head up I'm strangling!"

No inquest was held on account of the difficulty of securing men for jury service, that section being very sparsely settled. Justice Alberson questioned the witnesses and finding positive proof as to how decessmet his death, allowed the relatives to take the body to Quinn river. Mrs. Simpson is a daughter of Mrs. John Vance and has three children. The murderer is still at large. He stole a horse at the Vance ranch Friday night and was seen in Nevada Saturday. The sheriff at Winnemucca was notified, but all trace has been lost. It is thought he has boarded a train and is out of reach for the present, at least. Sheriff Shelley and John Saxton left here Monday for the scene of the tragedy and as yet have not returned. The capture of the murderer is doubtful.

Narrows Happenings.

Wm. Woolley of Diamond and Geo. Tucker, of Happy Valley passed through on their way home last Sunday.

Ed Springer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Springer, who was thrown from a horse some time ago, and severely bruised about the head and face has gone to Burns for treatment.

Mr. Frank Cawfield has moved to his brothers ranch in the Red-S field, for a few months on account of high water.

The social held at P. L. Dutchers was a bowling success everybody enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lewis passed through last Monday on their way to Diamond where they will visit their daughter Mrs. Henry Vulgamore for a few days.

P. H. Ware, while engaged in a friendly tussel with Leonie Elliot, fell and cut quite a severe gash in his hand. P. H. is about with his hand in a sling.

Fay Comegys smiles when you meet him. He passed through our berg the other day, said he was going to Burns to visit his son Wilhelm.

Fred Cook, of the Sod house ranch, says he will spend his Sunday's and spare moments riding broncho mules on Geo Curtis' ranch. We don't know what the attraction is but we think Tom does not hire the right kind of a cook or he could keep Fred at home. How about it Tom?

R. A. Smith, a sheepman of the vicinity of Happy valley, came in last Sunday. Dick reports the sheep as fine, as silk, and expects large returns the coming shearing.

Jeff Cawfield was over from Happy and made us a friendly call. Jeff says everybody is alive and kicking over there.

Mrs. C. A. Haines, accompanied by her little son and daughter left last Saturday for Burns on a ten days visit among friends and relatives.

It will be but a short time till the peaceful lake region will enjoy silence and pleasure no more. Wm. Dunn has put in a pump and expects to irrigate 160 acres of land with it. H. Elliot and J. E. Harper will each put in a monstrous pumping station and the shrill scream of the whistle and the heavy chug chug of the powerful pumps will disturb the tranquility of the place. Civilization must advance and Messrs. Elliot and Harper are of the foremost ones to push things along. We expect to get power from the pumping stations here to run an electric light plant to light our town.

Jess Harper is in from the dredger and says it is aloft. Captain R. E. Parker thinks they will soon be able to navigate. The name of the dredger will be the city of Blitzen and will carry a crew of about four men besides captain and mate; a boiler of about 500 horse power; and an engine attached to a shovel which will lift one yard of solid earth at one time.

Six husky drummers invaded our town today. H. M. Boyd representing Cudbay Diamond Soap, E. C. Warren of the Pacific Biscuit and Cracker Co., Joe Skiles of the Spokane Drug Co., "Pap" Dinmore of the Continental Tobacco Co., Ed Blackburn who is traveling for Swift & Co. Alx G. Ogilvie representing the Acme Harvester Company and Harry Fritchman, of Wathams & Kerr Bros.
