J P Dickenson was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Syme, for several days the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Mrs J. L. Hembres left here last Monday via Canyon City to join her husband in Portland where they will make their home.

C. E. Kenyon, of the hardware firm of Voegtly & Kenyon, contemplates building a neat cottage on his lots in the near future.

Bill Christian was seen on our streets the first of the week. Bill says he came from the Thunder Mountain gold fields and would soon return.

Fred Fisk, the tonsorial artist, will open a shop in the building now occupied by John Gemberling as soon as the latter moves, which will be the latter part of next week.

Joe Topker was a passenger out on last Thursday's O-B stage enroute to Portland. Joe is in very poor health and goes to the metropolis to consult specialists. We hope to see him return in a very short time fully recovered.

The Harney Valley Brewery is again in operation. Mr. Woldenberg has secured two services of a first class brewer, Wm. Schmidt, and the first of his brewing will be ready for dry throats about the first week of circuit court.

The democrats of Malheur county have nominated the following ticket: Sheriff, J E Lawrence; clerk, G N Thompson; Assessor, Thomas Goodyear; commissioner, G W Blanton; treasurer, H B Donahy; surveyor, J S Millikin; coroner, Dr R O Payne

The Windsor is one of the most elegant and attractive bar rooms in Eastern Oregon, has the best line of cigars in Burns. Gentlemen mixologists and courteous treatment accorded all customers.

Dr. E. M. Clark, the well-known eye specialist, will be in Burns for two weeks, from April 21st. Dr. Clark will have his headquarters at the French Hotel, where he will be glad to meet his old friends and anyone who has eye troubles.

N. Brown & Sons have made better prices than the outside people have when given the opportunity.

Jack McCulley has the mining fever, and informs us that he is going to Thunder Mountain in Idaho. This is a new Klondike, and we hope Jack will become a millionaire in a short time.

The Pacific Live Stock Co. has leased the Alford Ranch, consisting of about 13,000 acres, from the J. S. Devine estate. The deal was made this week. The proposition has been under advisement for several weeks, but no agreement could be reached at first, but Superintendent Gilrest, Mrs. Devine and her attorney, E. P. McCormack, have been quite busy straightening up the affairs here, and the deal was finally consummated.

The P. L. S. Co. bought all the personal property, which consists of some of the finest thoroughbred stock in the west. The Alford is considered the best stock ranch in all Oregon, and the company has a lease on the property for five years.

Job printing—The Times-Herald

W. T. Hill was a guest at the Cottage yesterday.

H. E. Tompson returned Thursday from Westfall.

Richard Byram, an old time printer, is helping us out at the case this week.

Woodie Best came in Thursday to attend the commencement exercises of the Citizens' Business College.

Assessor Buchanan has been doing some field work this week. He returned from the Harney vicinity Wednesday.

We are agents for the celebrated Queen Quality shoes for women. They are sold the world over and no shoes in America excels Queen Quality. N. Brown & Sons.

J. M. Dalton, democratic candidate for county treasurer, accompanied Rev. G. W. Black to Narrows Thursday, returning yesterday. Bro. Black says he managed to keep Jim pretty straight.

E. P. McCormack, the Salem attorney who has been here since last Sunday looking after some legal matters in the Devine estate, left this morning by private conveyance for the railroad enroute home.

Ed Vaught, a nephew of Geo. Dyer, arrived here this week. The young man has just returned from South Africa where he fought with John Bull's army for sometime. His home is in Arkansas, and after a short visit here he will proceed East. Mr. Vaught has accepted a position at the Hauley ranch.

Gus Schroder, the Silver Lake stockman, has been nominated by the democrats of Lake county for sheriff. Gus has many friends in this section who hope he will be victorious at the polls. Dr. B. Daly, who was the democratic candidate for congress in the first district two years ago, was nominated for county judge.

MARRIED—At Drewsey, Mr. J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Etta Draper, Justice W. D. Baker performing the ceremony. The contracting parties are both residents of Drewsey. Mr. Johnson is a brother to Mrs. G. W. Clevenger of this city, and has been associated with his brothers in business at Drewsey for many years. The Times-Herald wishes the happy couple a prosperous wedded life.

Foreman Emanuel Clark was over from the R-ranch a few days this week for surgical treatment. Mr. Clark had one of his fingers badly lacerated by mixing up with a wild team not long since. The member gave him so much pain that he had to come to a physician for relief. After being lanced the wound is improving.

James F. Malon, democratic candidate for road supervisor in Happy Valley precinct, was a business visitor to Burns this week. Unfortunately Jim is up against a republican majority in his precinct and has been conferring with the chairman of the democratic county central committee as to the plan of campaign. We did not learn with whom he deposited his "sack", but will get our old hat Jim's elected. This is not a paid article.

MARRIED—At the Cottage, last Wednesday evening, April 9, J. M. Parker Jr. and Miss Katie Bennett, Rev. Black of the Baptist church officiating. The young couple are well and favorably known in this county, having resided here from childhood. The groom is a son of Mr and Mrs J M Parker, the old pioneers, and is a steady industrious young stockman. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs. Wm Bennett, of Silver valley. She is a charming young lady and one of our most popular teachers. We join a host of friends in congratulations.

The closing exercises of the Citizens Business College took place at the Baptist church Thursday and Friday evenings. On Thursday evening the program consisted of music and addresses on education by Dalton Biggs and Rev. A. J. Irwin. On Friday evening an oratorical contest participated in by several of the students took place. The young contestants acquitted themselves with credit and the Judges had a hard time to decide on the victor. J. J. Summerville was awarded the medal, Lester Hamilton being a close second. Prof. Rigby left this morning for Southern Oregon where he goes to bring his family to Burns. He expects to return about June 1st and will conduct a summer school.
