Lady's bicycle for sale cheap; also, all household goods at private sale. Call early at the Weider Studio.

Circuit court convenes next Monday. The trial of Miller and Colwell is the most important case on the docket.

Thornton Williams had to stop in Baker City for a few days while enroute home from the state convention, on account of illness. He arrived here Thursday.

The Windsor is one of the most elegant and attractive bar rooms in Eastern Oregon, has the best line of cigars in Burns. Gentlemen mixologists and courteous treatment accorded all customers.

We are informed J. L. Rand of Baker City has been retained to assist Parrish & Rembold in defending Miller and Colwell. Mr. Rand is the republican nominee for state senator for this district and an able lawyer. The gentleman arrived here Thursday.

Judge Sparrow, C. F. McKinney, Will McKinney and George Dunsmore left last Monday for Narrows. The Judge went down to look after some road work, while the latter gentlemen tried their luck with ducks and geese. They all returned Wednesday, and from appearances had good fortune—at least George didn't have to hide out or change any wearing apparel on his return, as he did last Sunday. The water in Silvie's river is wet.

An entire Photographic outfit for sale. Call at the Weider Studio.

Bud Stearing, the well known liquor man, was doing business in our city this week.

C. M. Kellogg, the stage man spent several days with us this week leaving yesterday for Canyon City.

We are informed that Mrs. C. S. Biggs will come over from Canyon next week on a visit to old friends and relatives.

Four beautiful pictures, framed, to be given away by N. Brown & Sons during April. Commencing on April 1st and during that month a ticket with every cash purchase.

Peter Clemens was appointed road master by the county court last Saturday. It was a good selection and we hope to see great improvement in our public roads this season.

Full and complete line of Garden Seeds and Onion sets fresh from the growers just received. Owing to the fact that these seed have been very late in arriving we are determined to dispose of them and will make reductions in prices in order to close them out.—Geer & Cummins.

Mrs. Frank Dibble started home the first of the week in company with W. C. Cecil. One of the horses got the line tangled in his tail, and, in trying to free it, Mr. Cecil broke it, and the team ran away. Mrs. Dibble was considerably jarred and had to return to secure the services of a doctor.

Give your home merchants a chance to sell you your goods. Don't give an outside house your order without giving your home merchant a chance to be heard. If you have been quoted prices not satisfactory give N. Brown & Sons a bid for your trade, by all means give your merchants and your neighbor a chance against strangers.

Have you registered?

When you have made cash purchases to the amount of $30 a roaster is given to you. Call and get a card filled out. Miller & Thompson.

Say, did you notice the window at Geer & Cummins? There is the finest display of guns and fishing tackle ever seen in Burns. Double barreled shot guns, Winchester and Marlin repeaters, rifles, gattling guns, popguns and any old thing. These are being sold at reduced prices and the sportsman who don't take advantage of it is loser. Better drop in today.

On our first page of this issue will be found the display ad of the Malheur Mercantile Company, of which E. A. Fraser is manager. This is not a new firm to our people by any means as the M. M. Co. is well known to many, especially the manager who has been connected with business in Ontario for many years. Wool men should remember that this firm has a large new warehouse and can handle this year's clip.

S. W. McMurphy is reported on the sick list.

Julius Chandler is in from the Warm Springs.

Sheepshearing will soon begin in this county.

The warm showers of yesterday were quite refreshing.

To the many friends in Burns who so liberally contributed to the pound social on Wednesday evening, April 16, for the benefit of the pastor of the Baptist church and his family, we extend our cordial thanks. This kind of work is a gleam of comfort in a hard worked pastor's life. May God bless each donor temporarily and spiritually. We especially thank the sisters who worked to get it up.

Fraternally and cordially,
G. W. BLACK,
Mrs. E. R. BLACK.

MRS. T. D. HARRIS DEAD.

Caldwell, April 11.—Mrs. T. D. Harris died at her residence in this city this morning from pneumonia. Deceased was about 55 years of age an earnest Christian and a generous loving friend. She leaves a husband and seven children. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. Charles E. Harris, editor of the Montpelier Examiner, is in the city, having been called here by the illness of his mother.—Boise Statesman.

Mrs. Harris was well known here having lived in Burns with her family for many years. She was a highly respected lady and her friends are grieved to learn of her death. Her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Woolley, lives at Diamond. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in this county.
