As my entire time is taken every Sunday either at Burns, Harney or Lawen, it will be impossible for me to hold any more Sunday afternoon services at Poison Creek school house. A. J. IRWIN.

Give your home merchants a chance to sell you your goods. Don't give an outside house your order without giving your home merchant a chance to be heard. If you have been quoted prices not satisfactory give N. Brown & Sons a bid for your trade, by all means give your merchants and your neighbor a chance against strangers.

N. U. Carpenter, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Ontario, spent several days here the first of the week on business connected with starting a national bank in Burns. The application has been made, and a bank with perhaps $50,000 capital will be started, local capital taking considerable of the stock. Voegtly & Kenyon have the exclusive agency for the Stover Gasoline Engine in this territory and parties desiring to purchase are invited to call on them. Patronize your home merchant and not be bilked. Beware of traveling agents and remember that this firm carries everything in the line of hardware, wagons, buggies, mowers, rakes, plows, etc.; in fact anything in the implement line. BUDELMAN-SCHWAB.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Leah Schwab, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Schwab, to John M. F. Budelman, of Burns, Or., took place Thursday evening, April 17, at 7 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, in this city. The different apartments were prettily decked for the occasion with clusters of Oregon grape and long-stemmed carnations. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives only, by the Rev. Mr. Powell, of the Episcopal Church. The bride was very winsome in an exquisite gown of tulle and organza. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. After congratulations, the company partook of dainty refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Budelman will make their future home at Burns, Or. No cards.—Portland Telegram.

Mr. and Mrs. Budelman arrived home last Wednesday and are now domiciled in the W. H. Decker residence, where they will reside until their new home is completed. We join with their many friends in welcoming them, and wish the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life.
