SCHWARTZ & BUDELMAN,
Burns, Oregon.

The Times-Herald.

AS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

Local News.

Several freight teams arrived this week.

The weather still remains a little cold for June.

Crops are looking very well considering the weather.

John Hopper was a visitor from Silvies this week.

John Wintermeir brought in the returns from Silvies.

The wool clip is being moved out of Harney county at a lively rate.

See the new ad for the Richardson & James saw mill in this issue.

Sam Mickel and wife were in our city this week making purchases from our merchants.

Several new windmills have been raised in various parts of town for irrigation purposes.

M. V. Smith was up from Lawen with a broad smile Tuesday. It is needless to say M. V. is a republican.

Now that election is over we might put in some spare time fixing up the old broken sidewalks and general dilapidated appearance of our town.

David Carey and his little daughter Grace were guests of his daughter Mrs. Geo. Shelley a few days this week. Dave is looking for democrats as they seem rather scarce.

F. N. Averill and his boys are wire pulling this week and have it all to themselves—the politicians quit last Monday. The electric light wires are being strung at a lively rate.

The Windsor is one of the most elegant and attractive bar rooms in Eastern Oregon, has the best line of cigars in Burns. Gentlemen bibliologists and courteous treatment accorded all customers.

Frank Davis and Dick Martin were here Wednesday, having come down after the threshing machine at Geo. Shaw's ranch to take it to Harney. We are informed they have bought the machine and will run it this season.

FREE STORAGE—We are handling wool free of charge, same as always; will also have the public sales as last season, thereby insuring the best possible price for wool.

MALHEUR MERCANTILE CO.,
Ontario, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Hayes and little daughter were up from Lawen Wednesday.

The work on John Budelman's new residence is being pushed and will soon be completed.

W. L. Woolley brought in the ballot boxes from Diamond. He returned home immediately.

Supt. J. C. Bartlett is here looking after some changes in the boundary lines of school districts.

The fact that the Burns Band will have charge of the grand ball on the Fourth insures it a social success.

A letter from R. E. Claypool to this office gives the information that he and his family are now located near Vale.

J. H. Loggan and W. H. Hower were down from Harney Wednesday bringing in the ballot boxes from that precinct.

Pat Stauffer showed up immediately after election day to see how his friends had made it. He was only partly pleased.

E. C. Warren and R. Kenner, two very jolly and well known traveling men spent the first of the week here taking orders for their houses.

"Daddy" still sells furniture at reasonable prices. No change since the election. Wall paper going at all kinds of prices. Call at the store, console with him and see the goods.

Full and complete line of Garden Seeds and Onion sets fresh from the growers just received. Owing to the fact that these seeds have been very late in arriving we are determined to dispose of them and will make reductions in prices in order to close them out.—Geer & Cummins.

D. L. Shirk came in from North Guano last week. He has sold all his land in Harney county to the French Glenn Co., and will hereafter have his headquarters at Guano valley. While on his way home, we understand, his team ran away with him throwing him out and bruising him up considerably.—Cedarville Record.

Say, did you notice the window at Geer & Cummins? There is the finest display of guns and fishing tackle ever seen in Burns. Double barreled shot guns, Winchester and Marlin repeaters, rifles, gattling guns, popguns and any old thing. These are being sold at reduced prices and the sportsman who don't take advantage of it is loser. Better drop in today.

Mrs. Geo. Miller was in our city Thursday.

Frank Dibble and wife are guests at the Cottage.

I finish work for amateur photographers on the same fadeless paper I use for the best professional pictures. Prices as low as possible for this grade of material.

The people of Harney have enclosed the city clock with a neat picket fence, put up a windmill and will soon have the square seeded to grass. This is quite an improvement and speaks well for our sister town.

The juvenile musicale given by the young musicians Thursday was very creditable. Every number was well rendered and enjoyed by the audience. Our local talent always surpasses expectation and give better entertainments than outside troops.

Chas. Newland, who for the past two years has been book keeping for N. Brown & Sons, took his departure the first of the week for Portland to visit his relatives. We do not know whether he expects to return to Burns or not.

John Martin and John Saxton left Tuesday for Klamath Falls where they go to meet Ed Martin. The boys went over land and will no doubt have a delightful time through the Cascades. They will spend some time hunting and fishing on the way back.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Marsden took their departure Monday morning via Canyon for Portland where they go to attend the Masonic and Eastern Star grand lodges. Mrs. Marsden has been Grand Worthy Matron for the past term and has advanced the order in many ways by her energy and devotion to the duties of her position.

Professor C. J. McIntosh and Miss Josephine Coxad were married at Canyon City Wednesday morning. Prof. McIntosh has been principal of the schools at that place for several years, and is a gentleman well liked. Miss Coxad has lived in that section since childhood and is a sister to Mrs. Wm. Farre of our city. The young couple are expected here today or tomorrow to visit Mr. and Mrs. Farre. The bride was for several years a compositor on the Grant County News.
