Charley Gunther, once a resident of this place, but now of Prairie City, is here guying his old time friends. Charley says Burns is far beyond what he expected of it when he packed the chain to lay out the town many years ago, and his only wish is that it will be five times as large.

A letter from Fred DeLentmen informs us that he is about to leave the section of country where he has resided, and just where he will locate he does not know. However, he wishes us to say good bye to his many friends here and to assure them that they will ever be a little nearer to his heart than his undershirt.

We were a little too hasty in our report last week concerning the county court furnishing wire netting for rabbit drives. This they promised to do to a committee of citizens that waited on them, but backed out on the proposition next day. It might be well for the farmers to take in hand the exterminating of the rabbits and county court, too, whenever opportunity affords.

The University of Oregon will open its twenty-seventh session at Eugene, Wednesday, September 17th. The outlook for the year seems at present, very promising. A number of new men have been added to the faculty, all thoroughly fitted both by preparation and by experience, for their work. The University buildings are being repaired and improved during the summer, the dormitory, gymnasium, and Deady Hall receiving especial attention. Students intending to enter this fall are invited to correspond with the president relative to their work. Catalogues
