Chas Johnson had to have his arm re-set last Sunday. It was found one break had made his elbow stiff and his physicians decided to break and re-set it. He is again about with his arm in a cast.

Commissioner Williams recently had a rabbit drive on his ranch and adjacent neighborhood and we are informed something like 900 black tails were exterminated. This is encouraging and no doubt drives will be general in the grain producing section from now until the pests are wiped out.

Say, did you notice the window at Geer & Cummins? There is the finest display of guns and fishing tackle ever seen in Burns. Double barrelled shot guns, Winchester and Marlin repeaters, rifles, gattling guns, popguns and any old thing These are being sold at reduced prices and the sportsman who don't take advantage of it is loser. Better drop in today.

A letter to this office from E H. Mead, the manager of the Southern Stock Co., which was billed to play here this week at Floral hall, states that his troupe was on an outing in the mountains and our letter was delayed in reaching them. The Southern Stock Co. will be here for fair week, Sept 22 to 27 without fail and we can assure the public some of the best productions ever witnessed in Burns. The press of Southern Oregon and California is giving the company many complements.

Julian Byrd, J. W. Buchannan and Sam Mothershead of Burns, accompanied by their respective families and Miss Clare Swain, passed through Canyon City last Friday enroute home from the vicinity of Austin where they had been picking huckleberries. The ladies of the party succeeded in picking about 70 gallons of berries while the gentlemen attended the circus at Baker City—Canyon Eagle We were not aware that the ladies of the party visited the Eagle office. This is very unkind Pat

Col. C. E. S. Wood met with a painful accident just inside the Will Hanley field last night. A horse fell on him and after he had gotten free from the animal the Col. found he could not walk and after waiting for some time in hopes of someone coming by to assist him started to crawl to the ranch. C. G. Smith found the injured man and took him to the house. We are informed this morning that several bones in the Colonel's foot are dislocated but he is resting very well Col. Wood had just arrived this week in company with Harry Corbett and Langton Warner from Boston, to join his sons for an outing.

Dill pickles—N. Brown & Sons

J W Buchanan and wife and Sam Mothershead and wife went to Harney to attend the funeral of T. B. James today.

The quality of goods carried by a business house is usually the best recommendation. Call on N Brown & Sons and be convinced.

MARRIED—Last Sunday evening August 24, at the Cottage, Mr. Fred Fisk and Miss Pearl Fry, Justice Sam Miller performing the ceremony. The contracting parties are both residents of this city. Mr Fisk conducts the tonsorial parlors at the Capitol. The bride spent her childhood here but moved with her parents to California several years ago returning a year ago and has since taught school in this county. She is a very amiable young lady and has a host of friends We extend well wishes to the couple and hope they may be happy and prosperous.
