Local News.

Chas. Belshaw is over again with one of his excellent fruit. W. J. King and wife were in Lawen last Sunday. R. J. Bixby and family were in Buck Creek a few days this week. Mrs. N. U. Carpenter has been confined to her room for several days this week, but is now much better. Our better half and oldest daughter are taking great chances these days of freezing and we hope to see some one or all of our delinquent subscribers who have promised us good to show up. If you bring more than will pay your bill we will pay you cash for the difference. We want wood and want it at once.

M. V. Smith, of Lawen, is in the city.

E. A. Stauffer has returned from his ranch in Oregon.—Winnemucca Silver State.

Mr. Kimbell, the blacksmith at the Sod House was seen on our streets yesterday.

Commissioner Miller and Lou Sitz were business visitors from the Lawen section this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hayes and baby were the guests of friends in our city Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Lahey is fitting up rooms in the old "Tex Resort" building in which she will open a restaurant next Monday.

A dance will be given in Locher's hall next Friday evening to which all are invited. Jack Dennis will furnish the music. Every body come.

M. V. Baker was over from the Warm spring ranch this week with two tons after lumber with which to build a new bunk house for his vaqueros.

Geo D Hagey is suffering from a severely bruised and cut hand which was caused by getting it caught in a hay baler. No bones were broken.

John Austin, a butcher from Sumpter, was in this city Wednesday, having come over to receive a drove of beef he had bought from H. Y. Blackwell.

Mrs. H Richardson and children, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Laura Lahey, arrived home from Baker City the first of the week.

Dan Varien informs us he expects to leave about the first of next month with his mother to spend the winter in California.

"Mother" Bowen, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Scarf, left last Saturday, via Canyon for Portland where the former will be treated for eye trouble.

H. E. Thomps and family returned Monday from Prairie City Mrs. Thompson, who was hurt in a runaway, of which mention was made last issue, is doing very well.

L. E. Hibbard has received a letter from Rev A J Irwin in which he states he is enroute home from Grants Pass but will not arrive here in time to fill any appointments this month.

Andrew Stone, Frank Larsen and Joe Riales are here from the Wild Horse section on land business. The latter will make proof on his homestead before the county clerk today and the two former are his witnesses.

STOLEN—On the night of Oct. 9, 1902, from Henry Kelsey, on Deep creek in Steins Mountain, one light sorrel horse with strip in face, branded and vented with HF on left shoulder. Information leading to the arrest and conviction of the thief, or the return of the horse to R. H. Brown's ranch near Diamond, will be liberally rewarded.

Mrs. H. Indermauer, of New York City, was an arrival on the O-B stage the first of the week to visit her brother, Dr H Volp. It was a very pleasant surprise to the Doctor, as he did not know his sister was coming. He had not seen her for 12 years. Mrs. Indermauer will spend the winter with him.

On last Monday Simon Lewis received a phone message announcing the sad intelligence that his brother, E. V. who was recently taken to the asylum from Lakeview for treatment, had died the day before. It was a sad blow to Simon, as he had expected a speedy recovery. E. V. Lewis was quite well known in this section.

The Electric Light and Power Co. has been praying for rain for to these many days and when it finally came the six big street lights were put up and Thursday night the whole section surrounding Burns was illuminated by them and our city looked quite metropolitan. The lights were good and our people again packed up their oil lamps and stored them away. Friday The Times-Herald man was congratulating one of the members of the Company when the gentleman said that the dam (using the word twice) had gone out of the river and we would have no electric lights for several days again on account of no power. Men are at work repairing the break.

A. A. Reineman after spending several weeks in this section visiting old time friends and looking after some business interests, took his departure Tuesday morning for his home in Pittsburg. He was accompanied by Mrs I N. Hugget and children who will spend some time visiting relatives and friends in her old home.

The Chinese cook at the Island ranch was brought in the other day quite badly hurt by his team running away and throwing him out. It seems some of the boys found him in the road where he had laid unconscious for about two hours. The physicians found no bones broken and he is now on the way to recovery.

The case of Alice Sturtevant vs China Tom occupied the attention of Justice Miller yesterday. China Tom had a lease on the property where he runs a restaurant with the understanding that he vacate when the property was sold. Mrs. Sturtevant disposed of the building to M L Lewis and the suit was brought to oust Tom. The jury brought in a verdict in favor of Tom.

"Daddy" still sells furniture at reasonable prices. No change since the election. Wall paper going at all kinds of prices. Call at the store, condescend with him and see the goods.

Thos Vickers took an eight horse load of freight to Burns, Thursday, which he had lately brought from the railroad.

Boys—To the wife of Joseph Clark, on the 22 a boy.

Robt Irving and Chas Crawford reached here Thursday with heavy loads of freight.

Mrs. Wm. Russell, who is now living in town, has a new boy at her house.

Mrs. T. Vickers and family moved to town this week to start their children to school.

Harney school now has about 60 pupils enrolled. This is a very satisfactory attendance for this time of year.

Harney again has a sick list. At this writing Mesdames Irving, Everett, Buchanan and several children are suffering from acute illness.

The number of wagons laden with winter vegetables which have been lately hauled over from John Day by residents of Harney for home consumption, naturally leads an observer to wonder why a sufficient amount of such food products are not raised right here in our vicinity. For this purpose we neither lack water nor productive soil.

The bicycle fever has struck Harney again.

Mesdames Martin and Tregaskis are visiting relatives in Vale this week.

Mrs A. K. Richardson and Richard Everett called on the dentist at Burns this week.
