We are told that Isaacs & Guinn, the largest sheep owners in the county, have decided to not feed hay to their sheep next winter.

The work of progress makes trying demands upon the citizen. With all the public business of the community to attend to, all the calls for time and money from worthy causes to answer, all the urgent improvements of civil and municipal life to be made and paid for, the modern business man has his hands full.

going in a competitive age, and the interim between private and public duties is so brief that the average business man spends only one-fourth of his life at the home he loves and cherishes, beyond compare.

The Waconia Patriot brings to hand the exciting account of John Fredrick's retirement from the broncho busting profession in consequence of trying to meet or top familiar terms what appeared to be an inconsequential little broncho that looked easy, but which was not.

The magazine section is illustrated in daintily tinted colors and splendid half-tone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines.

The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in the Republic.

The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.

START A BUSINESS OF YOUR OWN. Our new book entitled "40 MONEY MAKING IDEAS" is worth its weight in gold to every man who wants to start a legitimate, paying mail order business.

A Great Newspaper. The Sunday edition of the St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise.

The organization of its news services is world-wide, complete in every department; in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper.
